Welcome my dear brothers and sisters Listen carefully and receive with love the following message from Jesus. My dear friends is with great pleasure, joy, immense love that I bring you an important ascension update. Time is now for all who are ready to return to Love. You, my beloved Light workers, have been waiting for this patiently for a long time. Why a magnificent and miraculous event like this can only occur at the perfect moment of the divine calendar? We the company of the sky must wait until the frequency of light on planet Earth is high enough to catalyze and shoot the event, and all those who have decided to ascend are ready enough. We have all worked hard for this massive project for thousands of terrestrial years, so they seemed eons in their linear concept of time. The number of highly evolved beings of light participating in this great adventure is billions. Located on both sides of the physical and non-physical kingdoms. And you are among them. Your dedication, your hard work, your courage, your perseverance, your immense victories over seemingly impossible challenges to overcome and all the experiences you have had in your present and past life, have brought you here. They prepared you and now is the time for all of you to reap the rewards. This message is designed to give you a clear understanding, easy to understand and complete, of the next great event. Let's start with the following question: What is this great event?: You may have heard of the event, mentioned in passing in other publications, blogs, or books or for some of you this may be the first time you meet this information. Simply put, the event is a unique cosmic and planetary scale explosion, completely visible of divine light and love of the earth. These powerful waves of Divine Light and Love will come directly from God-Source, channeled through the Great Central Sun. They will pass through their galaxy and planetary systems arriving and covering the entire Earth in a moment. Reaching all living beings on the planet at once. Gaia and all its inhabitants will be able to see and feel the event and no one will escape later. What is likely to happen during the event?: During the event all incarnate souls will feel a powerful and undeniable wave of the following feelings all mixed: unconditional love, divine bliss, complete acceptance of who you are, thanks, divine blessings and finally strong feelings of being at home again during this powerful wave of energy. Some of you may witness the appearance of an ascended teacher, founding leaders of the religions in which you believe or with those who have a close spiritual connection. For example, if he is a Christian, he can have a vision of the Lord Jesus and be able to speak with him personally. If you are a Buddhist you can have a vision of Gautama the Buddha and be able to have a private conversation with Him. You can instantly recognize who you are, by the very powerful vibrations of light and love that emanate and by your own eternal connection with the souls of these powerful highly evolved beings, even after reading what was written before. It will be difficult for most of you to imagine what the event will be like, because you still do not have a past life experience as a starting point with which to compare it in this life. However, some of you, who read this, have experienced something similar to the event during your meditation or spiritual awakening, but on a much smaller scale. If they belong to the last group, keep in mind that what they have already felt in the past will feel all the previous feelings again, but amplified more than a thousand times during the next event. However, what will happen with everyone after the event will become a little difficult to explain. Each of you will perceive and process the event differently, depending on the type of group of souls to which it belongs, among the four groups of different souls. Next: Group 1.- It is made up of awake souls, our Light Workers. All of you, who are reading this, will know and understand the event for what it really is. This is the great catalyst that will simultaneously mark the beginning of the new Earth and mark the end of time. The end of life as it has been known before. On three-dimensional Earth you were awakened before most human beings for a very important reason. They will be given the task of being the guides, monitors and leaders of the life of the fifth dimension. All of you have been training and preparing for this moment for a long time and are now completely ready to take the torch of leadership and be the teachers / mentors / trainers who have come to make the plan of your life here on Earth. The next steps that should be taken in the role they will assume after this great event will be revealed more deeply and clearly by their superior beings and their spiritual team. Most of you have answered your call and have already settled in these light work roles. In any case, in one way or another, as leaders of the fifth-dimensional way of life, they will receive constant guidance and direct assistance from their galactic brothers and sisters of many advanced and highly evolved civilizations. They will appreciate the lessons that these galactic. They will be offered to assist in the planetary healing of Gaia, as well as in the formation of the new Earth. Many new fifth-dimensional structures are now ready to be placed. His spiritual powers will wake up completely and begin to expand at a faster pace. They will learn to master their thoughts, since humanity will soon be a race of beings that will mainly communicate telepathically. Mastering thoughts is the first step to master the art of creation and manifestation. And their galactic brothers and sisters will also help them greatly in this and, when their lessons with them are complete, they will go out into the world to share this knowledge with others, so that all men on planet Earth will one day be the living incarnation of their superior beings. All will become powerful creators and manifestators. Earth will become a planet that will consist solely of loving beings that will truly embody unity. The unity of master beings that have ascended to the fifth dimension. Group 2: They are non-awake souls, who at a higher level have decided to resurrect in this life for this group. The event will cause a huge shock, confusion and investigate to better understand what happened to them exactly. The event can be compared with the strongest call of attention they have heard in their entire lives. A call that can no longer be ignored. You will begin, with a deep sense of urgency that only they can feel, to seek and attract your guidance from you, my dear friends of the Light. They will intuitively find the perfect mentor for them, who has the superior knowledge necessary to help them move forward on their own great path of light. Spiritual development will become its main focus on life and time. Group 3: They are non-awake souls who, at a higher level, have decided not to ascend in this life. They will feel the intensity of the great event and also feel all the feelings that emanate from it. However, once this ends, they will slowly return to life in the three-dimensional paradigm, even if they discover real and authentic news about the event and what it means, their inner reaction will be of strong doubts, disbelief and denial. The event is the biggest wake-up call for all incarnate souls on planet Earth who are still sleeping. This group of souls is sleeping too deeply and has decided, on a higher level, not to wake up in this life, therefore the event will not arouse any interest in all spiritual things since they are not in the stage where spiritual development becomes a priority. In other words, they are neither prepared nor mentally, nor physical, nor emotional nor spiritually to ascend now in this present life. Group 4: Non not awake souls, who at a higher level have decided to play the roles of darkness. In this life there are two tips of darkness in this group of souls in particular, one that is aware of what is happening on Earth at this time, and another that is completely dark. He has no idea, he doesn't care about the event or what it means. They are those who know the event, and so far they have tried actively and deliberately to prevent and stop it. The spiritual awakening will suddenly allow them to realize that their time is now completely over. They will know that everything is lost for its dark purpose or cause, because humanity will no longer be interested in living in the type of three-dimensional consciousness of low vibration in which this darkness thrives. All the souls of group 4, will only face two possible paths to undertake after the great event: The road to: It is the path of a possible return to the light and love of their superior beings. It is the path that offers one last chance for these souls to embrace the light and return to their divine origins. In this present life for the souls who choose this, it takes a lot of courage to travel the road. Everyone must confess all the mistakes they have made in their current life, that is, all the things that were harmful to the planet and harmful to people, groups, societies, citizens of their own country. Everything will be released. Anyway, in one way or another, nothing can remain hidden in the new earth. All human beings on the planet will one day discover all the evils that this group of souls has done to them, whose previous purpose was to have power over others and satisfy their greed. Any injurious act that they have suffered, directly or indirectly, will be subject to analysis. Spiritual leaders of the group of souls from all corners of the world will be selected to represent humanity and to decide what to do with all the souls of group 4, who have decided to walk the way to. If you were selected to be one of those spiritual leaders, and many of you, who read this article, will be. You are called to be the voice of reason, the voice of love and they will be called to be the anchors of a way of being of the fifth dimension. The form of unconditional love. You will be the voice of calm. The voice of peace will speak. Yes, you will stand before many citizens of the earth and persuade them to choose the path of unconditional love, the path of forgiveness and the way of letting go of the past. These first leaders should evaluate the true intention of all those who belong to group 4. There must be real remorse. A true intention of reform and the will to submit to decisions, not only of the selected spiritual leaders but also of the group of people they have hurt in the past. Leaders will have the ability to detect all the deceptions and lies they may receive from some of these souls. A deliberate attempt to deceive and lie will certainly fail negatively, in the event that the true intention of some of these souls is simply to escape in some way to the consequences they are forced to face. Only those with the most genuine intention to amend, reconcile and pay for their mistakes and embrace the fifth dimension of living in the spirit of love, peace and abundance unity for all, will eventually be forgiven, embraced and continuously guided so that they can once again travel the path of one and live in the light, after reviewing the previous evaluation. If when it is discovered that some souls are so lost in the dark that nothing else can be done, to bring them back to the path of light, and that they are probably souls of group 4, then the path and only option that these souls can undertake, not allowing any other way than being returned or merged back to the source of light. To the loving embrace of God in the spiritual realm and then reborn and reincarnate on another three-dimensional planet that still supports awareness of duality, fear, lack and separation. His return to the light source will be done in a loving and respectful way. These souls may continue another path, living on another planet of low vibration and performing the roles of darkness, until they are ready to meet with the light and love of their superior beings. There is an important point to remember here. God has given each soul free will to do what he wants with the life He has given them. There is no conviction without trial. Each soul that currently belongs to Group 4 has decided before birth at the level of the Higher Self, follow the path and ascension now in this life, or the path and ascension later in a future life in another place once they are ready. All my beloved light workers, who are reading this right now, their job is to lead by example and live by example. You must be one of the first to show your will to embrace, forgive and let go of all the evils that these souls in group 4 had done before the Great Awakening, before the great event. Now, here is the big question, I'm sure everyone who reads this is done inside. When is this great event supposed to take place? There have been many different answers. Some channels recently reported that it will happen soon, this month, at the end of March 2018. Some wrote what will happen before the end of the year. Others have predicted that they will happen much later, maybe in 3 to 10 years. Which of these answers is correct? Predicting the future is a risky business that is why when you go to see different media, at two different times, for example a visit at age 20 and another in the early 30s, there is a great possibility that these psychics give you two very different answers to the same question you asked about the infinite number of potential and future realities that await you, that is, your probable timelines. These media can only provide predictions based on your vibrations and intentions you had at the time of your visit. Every person you have met in life or who played a role in your life at that time, or who in the future would play a role in your life, will have the power to change your probable future. However, the risks of an erroneous prediction are magnified a million times, as there are many micro and macro factors of the human collective that can influence time and space to produce a different timeline than originally predicted. That said, here is our final answer to your big question, with the presumption that all things continue to develop at your current rate of change, there is a 56% chance that the big event is likely to take place within the next three to six months from today. This response is based on data from current levels of planetary vibration of the Earth. Do not be disappointed if you arrive a little later than previously planned. There is even a 30% chance of it happening before the previous time interval. The most important thing to keep in mind, regardless of when the great event really happens, is that this cosmic, magnificent and miraculous spiritual event is inevitable. It is certain that it will happen. The light is already victorious. Absolutely nothing can prevent the new Earth from manifesting in its physical reality, here and now. Soon it will be time for them to join the extremely animated celebrations that already take place in the sky, or upper dimensional kingdoms and great joy resonate in all galaxies of this universe and the entire galactic community. All his brothers and sisters of light from his past and future life in the upper dimensions. In different races and civilizations they are ready to embrace and welcome all mankind. In the spirit of harmony and unity with all that is. These are really great moments that you are living. Please, deeply acknowledge the honor that has been done to you physically incarnate on planet Earth, while this great change is taking place. Let us deeply and sincerely thank the Father Mother God Source, first Creator this great gift of love and Mother Earth Gaia for her deep and enduring love and the sacrifices she has given for all mankind through the centuries. There really is nothing else they can do from now on. My beloved workers of light, continue to shine their light and live every day totally committed to their own great path of light and a very vibrant way of life. Please, also continue working every day and acting as if they were the incarnation of your Higher Self and as if the New Earth were already here. Both made at the great moment of the hour are definitely true and not a false belief at all. All of us here in the upper dimension are inclined with great respect, love, gratitude and admiration for their continuous participation, courage, courage and hard work in the creation and physical manifestation of the new Earth. We will continue to be his love and supportive co-worker in this great ascension project until its completion, until the end. I walk with you at every step of the road. Request our help whenever you need it. We are all ready to help. You are never alone. Send a lot of love and illuminate your path. Your brother in the light. Jesua Blessings we send you a very strong and tight hug to each of you. We are the workers of the Light.
