

FIRST INDICATIONS OF THE 7TH ROOT RACE

Beloved inhabitants of the Earth, I greet you in the name of my root breed and its sub-races. There is little they know about me, my service, or my people. A Manú is a being that has primarily assumed the great opportunity to mold a large number of spiritual sparks in a specific divine design, to provide tremendous service when time requires it on the planet where the Manú whether it will embody or send its emissaries since you know something about the manus that have preceded me and that are prisoners of love, also know that my great race Root has to wait for the realization of the divine plan and patron for each of the members of the fourth, fifth and sixth races and their accompanying sub-races, at which time I will be allowed to reveal the first sub-race of my root race. In previous ages when Mr. Manú made this initial impulse on planet Earth, it was necessary for Manu in person to embody to maintain an anchor of the perfection of design, character, activity and service. Then the sub-race, of course, is the strongest of the entire root breed first would build the fundamental plot, so to speak for the activity and service for that era. In our service primarily on the Seventh Ray, they have been told that we have completed our journey through the seven spheres and that we are waiting for the seventh sphere in which the Master Ascended in Germain is the temples of the Violet Flame and all the activities of the Violet Fire, of the opportunity to be called by the Karmic Court and that we are allowed to send some of the children of our first sub-race. If they enter too early before large numbers of members of the fourth root breed have returned home, the seventh root breed, which has a tonal key and service to provide totally different, could not always carry out its mission with dignity. It could be said that for the root race a Manú represents his father god. In my case I will not incarnate since the land through the existence of the children of the ascended master Saint Germain and the tremendous calls asking for violet flame, is being sufficiently purified sufficiently of the disembodied entities and the elimination at the end of the earthly time of souls that would otherwise have to reincarnate, and by the elimination of the etheric records in the living and in the so-called dead, between quotes When the time of achievement comes and the doors of heaven open, the first representative race of the Ceremonial Violet Ray activity will be revealed. All equipped with magnificent voices. All capable of both precipitating and levitating since they are born, with the knowledge of their celestial scope without intermediate veil. This great race must manifest itself mostly in the South American continent, although we have experienced successfully instilling several members of the first sub-race under my domain, in the North American continent. We have chosen South America because, from one side to the other of Brazil and for all that land that is now Selva, the land has had time to rest. Ask me and the ascended Master San Germain to purify that section that crosses the equator and give us a green and beautiful land, so that the same law of love and light adorns it with beauty and cleanses the human effluvium. Within the Earth itself as 5 meters below the surface, across Peru where the Amazon flows to Rio de Janeiro, an activity of the violet fire has been established. The result of that, you will see in their newspapers, is that a large number of poisonous reptiles and diverse effluvia are being vomited to the Amazon and by this means taken to the ocean, and the Amazon will no longer be that flood of muddy waters, but will assume that beautiful sapphire blue color, which is the color of the waters of our area. Our area, where the ascended teacher Saint Germain is located is comfortable and happy and we are a group of very patient individuals. We have waited for a long time, but now the cosmic law has assured us that the first sub-race will be given the opportunity. Some of them will appear before Mother Mary in the month of May 1961 and, I am quite sure, that one thousand or two thousand of these beings will embody primarily on the North American continent, because the South American continent is not yet ready for them. These people, as they grow up until they mature, will be very different from the other people who have never seen themselves on the planet Earth their hair will have an amber color and they will look a lot like the ascended master Saint Germain, except that everyone will have blue eyes and seraphic face, slender figure, long members and thin fingers will be artistic to rage the theater will return the foreground again, only through the theater, Ballet and music will be presented to the masses the pomp of life like this should be lived. Most of that time, which in the past has been invested in say the theater and the various means of training to relax the conscience, now they will use it to bring people's attention on a focal point. That is his task and of course it will be carried out according to the tenacity of the divine sparks, which are embodied with my blessing and said it is over. With my omnipresent vigilance and protection my loved ones will help tremendously the ascended Master Saint Germain in his service and activity to life. Like Manu I have a root breed and it has seven branches. It is like a tree with seven large branches, only these will not flourish all at the same time. They bloom one by one, starting from left to right until the seven sub-races have found their expression and consummation. Then the manu and all the sub-races come together and ascend in the same way they descended before. Perhaps this clarifies something that may have been confused in the consciousness of the mind. As far as I am concerned, I will materialize when it is convenient. I will not assume the form of an infant, but yes, I will materialize when the kingdom of the beloved Master Ascended Saint Germain has fully established itself on earth. When humanity, elementals and angels are all united in harmony, it will be only then that I will be able to introduce a large number of powerful beings that I have engendered and whom I love and who in turn will enhance the perfection of said golden era. This speech of the Manú of the Seventh Root Race The Great Divine Director was given in the Asram on April 1, 1961.
