Welcome my dear beloved brothers and sisters. Listen carefully and receive the following message with love. Dear brothers of planet Earth. I am Ashtar Sheran. My joy today is not only to be able to come here once again and be with all of you, but also to join all my galactic brothers around your planet. Victories happen every day. You will be wondering who wins? We don't see anything, we don't know anything. The greatest victory will be to be able to do what we are going to do. No noise, no despair, no movement on the planet. This is the best tactic in a war. Act with discretion, without the enemy noticing. With great caution. Always analyzing in advance the next stage until which can be hit, and that is exactly what we will do. The enemy still has some power, but not the power to attack the innocents of the planet. They no longer have this power. Do not judge situations only from what you see. There are many lies and makeup in everything that is shown. Do not judge prematurely, at the risk of repenting tomorrow. Now is the time to trust the light, which is 100% planted on your planet, there is no longer any type of block. The central sunlight is coming with maximum intensity to this planet, releasing, exposing and bringing all the truths to the surface. It is not possible to hide, deceive, act in the shadows, because shadows no longer exist. Everything is light and the light reveals everything, exposes everything. How can you know that something is wrong, knowing the truth about this fact? From now on we must be careful because the media will use all the facts to incite despair. To show that everything worsens day by day, the greatest caution will be to consider the fact from a positive angle. If something bad is exposed, thank you for being exposed. Do not vibrate the negative side, do not vibrate the action caused by the media, vibrates the fact that the light has gained. What was hidden will be exposed so that everyone knows about its existence. It is the game of light, it is not evil that acts, it is light. They insist on showing what their world is where only evil exists, but if you start watching each event with the eyes of light the energy will be different. Do not spread or comment anything, just look at it and thank the light for exposing it. Do not judge anything, because nobody is to be judged, just forget it. Learn the lesson of the exposed case and forget it. This way you will have to act from now on, because they will try more and more to show you horrible and rare things, just to scandalize you and increase your fear of the world. Your world is moving towards the light, so if each of you does not spread the energy it emits, your world will not get worse. Your world is only getting worse because people are spreading the negative energy they emit, not because the world is what they say it is, so it is up to each of you to observe, be grateful for what the light is showing you and just forget. Tear from your mind and heart what you are showing. It does not concern you, this person does not concern you. It is not you who will judge him, it is he who will judge himself, because he will receive in return what he has committed. It is not you who will change this, making it better or worse. Now you can get worse your world if you enter this energy. Everything will be exposed, nothing will be hidden. Know how to face each news. There is only light on the planet. Everything is happening at high speed and you will be surprised how everything will turn out. Our appearance is already scheduled. We no longer depend on the energies of the planet. We have reached the point where we have already established the day we will reach your planet en masse. What will be the reaction of the human race? I will not say that it will be a reaction where everyone will applaud us, on the contrary there will be many attacks and discussions. We will not do anything, we will only appear as first contact, as you say. One of us will descend to your planet and speak to humanity. We still do not know who will do it and this day is already defined, we no longer depend on your energy. We have reached the point where we had to reach. From there the whole process of awakening from the planet will begin. How is this going to happen? You'll see it day after day. So wait, that's all. Those who wait this day with love will raise their arms and come to applaud us. The vast majority do not. Therefore pay close attention to your own behavior towards others. We don't want to be attacked or made fun of you. If you want to receive us with love, do it from the bottom of your hearts. Fill us with joy and receive us. Rest assured that we will feel your love but you should not expose yourself, there will be no need for that. Feel us and we will feel you. So here is the great news. Do not pay attention to those who announce dates, because only great leaders know the date and will certainly not reveal it. Do not believe those who give dates. Everyone is for that. At the right time we will simply tell you to reveal yourself. And everything will be revealed. It will be simple fast and easy to be ready. Those of you who love us, put your hearts in celebration because we are arriving. To those who still doubt, as you say, they will pay to see, so know that it has reached the optimum point. Is this the perfect point?, No. Is it easy? No. Will it be quiet? Neither, but, I can assure you that it never would be, so we have to start the process. What we had to do on its surface (surface of the planet) has already been done. Be prepared, not anxious but simply prepared so that when your skies get dark, not for lack of light but for the size of our ships, you know that the time has come, they are here, and at this moment all our galactic brothers will applaud you because they will have the knowledge and certainty that the march of the liberation of the human race will be triggered. You are blessed today, tomorrow and forever.

We send a very strong and tight hug to each of you, we are the workers of the Light
