INTRODUCTION

Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit and I am the Absolute. My Father and I are One. Life to Life. Love to Love. Faith to the heart and I the Christ take this opportunity to speak directly to you. I have come to rectify misinterpretations about my teachings, when known as Jesus I was in Palestine 2000 years ago.

These letters are being sent through someone who for the past 40 years has been spiritually sensitive and dedicated enough to receive my words and act on them. These letters are the truth. They transcend all the religious doctrines of the world. These letters will set you free. They are for all people who are searching for the reason for existence and the purpose of their lives. The strength to face the struggle of life, endure difficulties, illnesses and hopelessness, and inspiration for those who aspire to achieve greater spiritual awareness in their daily lives.

You could say that these letters are a course to become a Master for those who are prepared to embark on the path that I marked when I was on earth in Palestine, perhaps you doubt that these words are true when reading these pages and delving into the facts that I am explaining to you regarding the existence and origins of personality. You will realize that this truth could only come from the highest Source. Those who have difficulty understanding the cards should read a single page at a time then put it aside and meditate gradually. Your consciousness will absorb the meaning, for these pages are a link between your consciousness and my transcendent Consciousness. Come to these letters with a mind as free of ideas, beliefs and prejudices as a very small child before being indoctrinated with human belief. Bring me your clear mind, a mind that seeks and I will fill it with true treasures, the treasure of the highest knowledge which, when absorbed, will lighten your daily burden and lead you towards green pastures of brilliant light that will mean abundance, sublime joy and full satisfaction of all your needs, and you will come to know what it feels like to be abundantly blessed with all that exists beyond your human understanding. These letters are sent to all the people of the world with my love and compassion.

As you read them, you will follow love and compassion and come to realize that your daily struggles with existence were never for you. You don't need to go through pain and burden when you consistently understand, absorb, and put into practice the truth of existence.

Christ returns

LETTER NUMBER 1 - FIRST PART

The purpose of these letters, their intention is to bring enlightenment to the world in general so that humanity is able to build a new consciousness. For the next 2000 years these letters are the seeds of the future spiritual evolution of man.

The spiritual evolution of human consciousness is what causes mental and physical evolution in your personal and global life and will bring humanity closer to increasingly harmonious states of well-being. If this is hard to believe, reflect on the last 2,000 years and see what has been accomplished since I spoke to people in person. There has been a gradual trend toward brotherly love, which I preached assiduously to the Jews when I walked the land. There were no humanitarian organizations that are known today. Ambition, greed, and self-gratification were considered normal behavior. There was little brotherly love even among the Jews, whose prophets for generations had exhorted them to love their fellow men as themselves. As humanity has developed its capacity for brotherly love, life has become more pleasant and comfortable under forms of consideration, courtesy and kindness in the creation of hospitals, societies for child welfare and care of the elderly, movements for human rights and in many other institutions dedicated to the improvement of the human condition. All of these have been born in the hearts and minds of those who sincerely took into account my first words spoken in Palestine, which moved the people towards brotherly love and compassion towards their fellow citizens. This spiritual care and brotherly love had an enormous boost in the 19th century when my words were preached with intense and renewed sincerity from the pulpits and were well received by the fervent and sincere congregations. Preachers and congregations were already spread throughout the world on each Continent. The Sabbath was considered a day of rest and the thoughts of most Christian people were lifted to contemplate the power of God.

Such a worldwide suspension of normal duties and occupations gave rise to a 24-hour-long elevation of conscious thought into the Divine Creative Power, creating a constant powerful human-divine consciousness that supported and interweaved human lives. Human petition drew divine power into human consciousness and experience and directly gave rise to growth and expansion in every facet of human life, yet people still did not know how to mentally direct divine power into the spiritual channels of creativity instead of those of the ego, therefore the expansion of the collective consciousness gave rise to the bad results that arose from the power of the ego in addition to the good results produced by the spiritual consciousness of the inspired and enlightened people, for this reason I have come expressly to explain to them a fact of existence of vital importance. Please read this carefully: your personal consciousness is entirely responsible for everything that comes into your life and personal experience. It is your personal conscience that brings you good or evil.

En tu subconsciencia traes recuerdos fuertemente grabados, aunque ocultos de traumas, emotions from your past lives that can break in and affect your current consciousness. Your specific and fervent prayer for relief from some event may be answered, but in the long run it will be of little benefit if your mind and heart continually operate in contravention of the universal laws of love and if you live in a mental pattern or attitude of constant criticism. The universal laws of existence relate only to the activities of consciousness. They are exact and straight. They are not rewards or punishments from God, I repeat they are not punishments from God. They are related to the causal factors of consciousness, which attract and magnetize the electrical particles that thus unite and appear to the world as solid forms and experiences. Sometimes people contact through powerful prayer with the Divine Reality that is behind and within all creation, it responds and its activity is revealed in a short time as a necessary improvement within personal and national life and people can exclaim! a miracle! But in the long term the state of personal or national consciousness will once again reaffirm itself in its experiences and reproduce the same negative effects as before.

In health and activities you cannot make permanent changes in your lives unless you change your consciousness, therefore people must pray and strive at all times to achieve unconditional love because in the 20th century the mental abilities of the being human beings left their spiritual development behind. Scientists thought they could explain the origins of creation by attributing them to chance, so people threw morality into the ditch and began to give in completely to their own whims. They launched and promoted a new threat in the world, as they began to create a new form of world egocentric consciousness, directly opposed to the nature of divine unconditional love. Human consciousness blocked the influence of the divine. Note that the ever-increasing lurid images of a few that would have been locally contained a century ago have become a contagious mental infection, glorified in literature, film and theater, spreading throughout the world, creating a global human consciousness, similar to theirs expressed in sexual excesses, violence and perversions. This mental infection manifests itself first as egocentric ways of life and then in the creation of technological gadgets that have created serious health disorders, climate changes, crop losses, environmental deterioration, the extinction of living beings and massacres. mass of human beings.

Mental infection manifests itself in the human personality as deranged and destructive behavior. The use of drugs, abominable depravity and cruelty, mafia operations and sexual excesses, thus a vicious circle of malignancies, thoughts, pernicious and perverted activities, has been created by the magnates of entertainment and the media. The purpose is to capture the personal interest of a self-centered audience. Your television and movie screen has become the new Bible of human behavior. Personal tragedies unknown to the human race a century ago proliferate and people walk the streets in fear. The houses are protected behind high walls. Family and social problems are frequently exposed in public debates and thus the saga of human misery is perpetuated. This is the beast invading your territories and feeding a miasma of bestiality in innocent minds. This will continue until my Christ knowledge is recognized, accepted and lived by the majority of the people of Earth, because this knowledge will teach you how to return to the true path of life in order to create the way of life you truly desire, since I am unconditional love. I speak the truth, which many spiritual minds intuit and is rejected by those who are still spiritually blind. These words are not spoken to threaten or punish but to alert you to what is the source of all the unspeakable horrors that fill your newspapers and televisions every day. It is only the love that I have for all people, which forces me to descend through various levels of consciousness until I reach the dimension of human depravity, to warn you of its consequences in your current life.

It is important to ask yourself about the origin of the HIV virus, which attacks man's precious self-defense system, your immune system, and also attacks your ability to procreate. This virus is not controlled with drugs but by spiritual consciousness and will exterminate the reckless. The enlightened will avoid this and other dangers of existence. Wake up, realize. Your own strong impulses of consciousness are life impulses, they are highly creative electromagnetic impulses. When they are of a violent, aggressive, homicidal virulent nature they emit virulent, violent, aggressive and homicidal particles of consciousness, which take shape as viruses in the air, spreading from one innocent person to another. What is born and nurtured in the sick mind finally takes shape in the physical world. This is not punishment from God as the churches may teach, it is a scientific fact of existence, therefore it is a matter of extreme urgency that all spiritual people turn away from childish imaginations to clearly perceive the truth of creation and of existence.

My message to all churches I the Christ have come expressly to tell you the truth about the origins of human personality. I will explain exactly why and how man has been given a natural built-in propensity for self-will and a predominant desire for self-gratification and self-defense. This is not a sin, but part of the natural creative processes there is no punishment from above. Man through the stubborn and harmful exercise of ego power brings upon himself his own punishment. It is important, for this reason that in the same way that school science textbooks become outdated as the human mind discovers and opens up more advanced scientific knowledge, so too the same current form of Christianity based on false doctrines centered on my crucifixion must be allowed that he has a natural death. Your current global crisis is important, which is introducing a new failure of international laws and establishing the bases for future global terrorism. It clearly indicates that no religion in the world has the adequate knowledge and effective leadership to initiate changes in the mental habits of human beings that will lead directly to peace and prosperity. The true spiritual leader will be able to teach his congregations how and why the modern mental schemes, mental attitudes formed in consciousness have created the calamities and horrors that are beginning to be fully felt among everyone in various forms of pestilence and earthquakes, floods, famines, wars, revolutions and other tragedies. You can be sure that no evil that comes to Earth is a natural disaster. Anything adverse to your perfect well-being is first born in your consciousness and then takes shape within the overall experience. This is what I tried to tell the Jews when I walked the Earth and cried when they laughed and refused to believe it. They called me crazy. Don't let the churches make the same mistake, because the churches have been dead built on rituals and dogmas. Its priests and pastors have not been able to satisfy the ever-evolving spiritual needs of ardent seekers of truth. As a result, churches are becoming empty.

If churches are to endure, they must put aside their differences and have the humility to accept that inspiration. It doesn't necessarily come to Earth the way they expect it to. You must remember that I, the Christ, was not accepted by the Jews. Churches must keep their minds and hearts open to receive what they sense to be a higher truth than that to which they currently cling and abandon the old beliefs that have allowed the beast take control of human thought.

Pray sincerely with all your soul, mind and heart to receive true enlightenment, rather than a reiteration of old and false beliefs. Wake up and accept that those past rituals and beliefs have not fulfilled my words to humanity, when I promised that you would do greater things than what I did.

Meanwhile, until true enlightenment comes to you after much meditation and prayer, teach, demonstrate and live brotherly love with all the strength of the soul, heart and mind, minute by minute in your daily life, because to combat the global destructive forces of consciousness, humanity must put all its efforts to overcome quickly to the next stage of its development. There is an urgent need for a higher vision and it should be widely accepted that there is a higher vision that needs to be strived for and put into practice in your daily life. Only by attaining this higher vision will the physical world be rescued from total annihilation. There can be no spiritual evolution or achievement of these highly desired things, without the vision for either oneself or the world. At this current moment your perception of life is that of work and lack. These beliefs are portrayed and reinforced in a gradual manner through television. Later they will bring upon you the misery that you hoped would never happen to you, therefore to save you from your own foolishness expressed through the media, your human consciousness must be quickly raised to see what I saw in the desert. The reality of love within and behind all existence. Notice when this great truth is perceived and welcomed, the reality of love will begin to manifest in various ways in every living thing and in the environment itself. The experience of abundance and joy will reinforce the awareness of abundance and joy and thus be set in motion.

an increasingly elevated and wonderful spiritual spiral. When the true nature of being is understood, humanity will fully ascend to the next step of spiritual evolution and set in motion a new and blessed form of human endeavor and personal experience. To achieve these goals of humanity you must first obtain the inner vision of what and who you are. A new and important question is already entering people's consciousness: who are you really behind the facade you present to the world? What does it take for one to be authentic? This is the question that is answered at every level of your being within these pages.

LETTER NUMBER 1 - SECOND PART

And if you can accept as normative in your daily living everything that I understood during my six-week experience in the desert, you too, in time, will become whole and authentic just as I became, whole and authentic, before begin My ministry of healing and teaching.

Since there are few people in the world who consider themselves whole at this time, you will no doubt recognize that there is an urgent need for me to enter your mind to direct you toward a new way of thinking and feeling. Such a change in consciousness will make you enter into divine harmony with reality and you will obtain better living and security conditions to do this work of reconstruction within consciousness. First I must engrave it in your mind and you must accept it. That there was much that I taught in Palestine that men were not yet prepared to receive. It is significant that it has never been publicly questioned because there is no record of my early life as a young man. What was the real reason for such an important omission? It is equally significant that although I spent six weeks in the wilderness after my baptism and emerged from that experience as a Teacher and Healer, not a single writer has even attempted to describe what really happened during that time, other than that I was tempted by it and that he was among the beasts, and that the Angels were with him, there is not the slightest indication of what happened to me in the desert that made me able to return to the cities and villages proclaiming that the kingdom of God is within and to speak in the synagogues with such authority as the old Jewish teachers. They were silent and stunned. The truth regarding my human state, by common agreement of my disciples, was kept silent to give greater belief to my supposed divinity and ministry. According to the gospel it was said of me that I was the only son of God, because then I would frequently refer to myself as the son of man. I made these statements specifically to counter widespread beliefs about my divinity and to impress upon people's minds that I was of the same physical origin as them.

My intention was for them to understand that what I could do they could also do. do them. Yes, they simply had my knowledge and followed my instructions to think and act correctly. So many myths have arisen about my earthly self and my spiritual consciousness that it is time to get rid of them as completely as possible, since they are preventing everyone from evolving spiritually. You, who have been indoctrinated with religious teachings, must try to understand that in describing my life my evangelical disciples only related what they personally remembered, which fully supported their accounts of my supernatural activities. They also included much of what others had said about me in the 30 or so years following my death. After such a lapse of time and the inevitable changes made to the truth, how is it possible that they wrote a reliable biography of me and what really happened? or correctly explain my true spiritual perceptions that gave light to my words and miracles? Only one person can write from this point of view and that I Am Myself, therefore these letters will bring you my truth in a way that no spectator could have, no matter how much they thought they understood my thinking, for this reason For more than 40 years the mind of my channel has been systematically purified of all orthodox teaching and the system of communication between us has been perfected.

If my truth expressed in these letters differs greatly from what is written in the New Testament it must be doubted or rejected for that reason therefore I am descending in consciousness briefly as close as necessary to your plane of consciousness, to describe my life and teachings from 2000 years ago.

I greatly appreciate that you have listened to this audiobook and if you are here, THANK YOU LOVINGLY and now it is because it has given you something very valuable for your path.

Trust that everything that comes into your life is perfect for your growth.
