

CHRIST RETURNS REVEALS HIS TRUTH

The 9 letters of Christ Letter 7

INTRODUCTION

There is a strange and miraculous event attributed to the following LETTER. When letter 7 was finished, the channeler was clearly told to use the parable of Matthew 13 and 3 as opening paragraphs.

A little later it came to him powerfully that he added a paragraph on page 2 marked with Letter 7 was printed. As she collated the pages, she was stunned, overwhelmed, to find that she took up half of page 1 with the words:

“I AM THE LIFE, THE TRUTH AND THE WAY”

That it had not been written on the computer (page 2 in the Spanish translation). It appeared to be a “footer,” but such a “footer” could only have been written by using the precise and specific instructions of word perfect* to create a “footer.” What's more, usually only two lines are assigned to this type of notes. Half a page would not be a “footer!” Still shocked by the event, the channel searched each file on the computer to see if it had ever used such a footer and had forgotten it, but found nothing. A technician was called, shown the text on the computer and the same printout, but could not explain how this could have happened. Until now no one has been able to explain it. For those who may not know, this statement, I AM THE LIFE, THE TRUTH AND THE WAY, was made by Jesus Christ when describing himself during his mission in Palestine.

'The text was already cited and explained by CHRIST on page 10 of letter 7 but he used the words in a different order.

When you read the paragraphs marked  on page 2 of this letter together with the paragraph on page 1, they will undoubtedly take on new meaning for you, because they are obviously interrelated. First, the paragraph was drafted vigorously and typed on the computer, and at some point immediately afterwards, the “footer” was added to page 1. Another mystery! How was it that this footer was not noticeable when printing? The channeler lives alone, no one else could have access to the computer. The channeler considers this intervention and contravention of the wordperfect* procedure as CHRIST's own personal signature, something he could have done when he was on earth Christ returns reveals his truth letter 7.

(*programa de tratamiento de texto)

LETTER VII

Again, it is I the CHRIST, who has come to you through this LETTER for those who can receive my words.

The following parable can apply both to your modern era and to the times of the Jews 2001 years ago. I entrust its truth to you who read these letters.

“A sower went out to sow. When sowing, some seeds fell on the sidewalk; The birds came and ate them. Others fell on rocky terrain, where they barely had land; Since the soil was not deep, they sprouted immediately but as soon as the sun rose they were scorched and for lack of roots they withered. Others fell among brambles, the brambles grew and choked them. Others fell on good soil and produced grain; about a hundred; another sixty and another thirty. Whoever has ears, let him hear....!! .

Listen then to the meaning of the parable of the sower.

I Am the Life, the Truth and the Way.

When someone hears the message regarding the Kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one (the ego-centrist) rips out what was sown in his heart. This is what was planted along the path. Regarding what was planted on rocky ground; That is whoever hears the message and immediately receives it with joy; However, it has no roots in itself, but it endures a little and as soon as a difficulty or persecution arises for the message, it immediately fails. What is sown among brambles is the one who hears the message, but the desires for riches and pleasures of the world drown out the message and it remains sterile. What is planted in good soil is whoever hears the message and understands it, that does bear fruit and produces in one case 100 x 100; in another 60; in another 30. (Matthew 13 V3).

My purpose in sharing this knowledge of the Truth of Being with you in these Letters is to enable you to grow in wisdom and spiritual love and to produce the fruits and blessings of such wisdom and spiritual love in every moment of your evolving consciousness. I hope that you are abundantly blessed.

Therefore, together we will plow up the human land of your conscience, turning it over, freeing it from the stones of despair. Let us break the clods of incomprehension with ever-deepening wisdom. Let's pull out the weeds of your mental/emotional patterns with my help. Let us fertilize the land of your conscience with an ever-increasing faith. Then sow increasingly beautiful seeds born from your evolving spiritual perceptions and your unconditional love. My joy will be your joy in this endeavor, and your joy will be added to my joy. In this unity of purpose and achievement, you will ultimately feel that you are truly of my spirit and that my spirit is being poured into you. In this way we will experience the unity of THE ONE from which we have both taken our individuality. My thoughts will be your thoughts uncontaminated by your previous ego-consciousness.

I have described the process-the path-on which you will walk to achieve the most sublime and perfect desires of your heart.

And so I tell you, although this LETTER may be difficult to accept at first, and will require time and effort to fully understand, it is a link between your conscience and mine.

In my transcendent state, I can do more for you when you call on me than I could if I returned to earth in a physical body, in which you could see me with your eyes and hear me with your ears but your understanding of the Truth of Being could be limited.

In this mode of contact with your consciousness, you will be able to receive Me directly into your mind and heart when the preconditions for such contact have been met.

Well I tell you truly, the more time and meditation you dedicate to these LETTERS it will be more possible for you to receive higher inspiration and instruction from me personally, because with each reading of these LETTERS the more your own frequencies of consciousness will rise towards the frequencies of my spiritual consciousness and in the end we will reach a true meeting place of consciences and then the fruits will be abundant in your life.

To explain why this is so, I must tell you that my consciousness descends through many diverse planes of vibrational frequencies of consciousness, to meet the needs of those who seek help and inspiration. The many and diverse planes of consciousness through which my consciousness passes are different from each other.

Each level of frequencies of consciousness creates and manifests as different conditions of existence, as the higher and lower vibrational frequencies of consciousness are produced by the higher or lower spiritual/mental/emotional patterns or forms of consciousness. By high and low patterns I mean, those that are closest or furthest from the intention of Divine Consciousness. As you know, each sound wave vibration frequency produces its own unique individual note and tone. Similarly the habitual mental/emotional forms of thought produce their own vibrational frequencies in consciousness and these in turn produce the external conditions in which consciousness resides.

The higher the vibrational frequencies of consciousness, the more beautiful, harmonious, joyful and fulfilled will be the lives of those who reside within these frequencies.

The lower the frequencies, the harsher, bitter, biting and sad will be the lives of those who resonate at such frequencies. Their lives are marked by disasters, deprivation and brutality.

The higher the vibrational frequency of consciousness, the more spiritually loving and beautiful are the thoughts, the creative imagination, the ideals and the beauty of color and forms of life, because they are rising closer and closer to the dimension of CONSCIOUSNESS. UNIVERSAL, where the frequencies have reached such a height that they level out and enter into powerful balance. THE ALL POWER OF UNIVERSAL CONSCIOUSNESS, THE SOURCE OF ALL BEING, LOVE.

To you the external conditions may appear to be those in which the body resides, but the truth is that the consciousness that dwells within is the one that experiences and responds to the external conditions. The body is nothing more than the vehicle that makes human consciousness visible to others, and the condition of the vehicle itself is a manifestation of the level of spiritual/mental/emotional consciousness that inhabits it.

Therefore, as I said before, as an observer of individual need and in response to pleas for help, my consciousness descends through the various levels of existential consciousness to reach the sincere supplicant for, to give the answers, I must first receive the need. And, as I said on the second page, these LETTERS are a link, a means for your communication with my consciousness, to make you able to be attracted spiritually and to make you more receptive and then deeply understand and use all the knowledge that I wish to share with you to climb the ladder of spiritual consciousness to the maximum heights of CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS.

Since I am almost the perfect balance, I have the spiritual power of UNIVERSAL CONSCIOUSNESS to an almost perfect degree. I am imbued with the nature of universal consciousness.

Therefore, my entire consciousness regardless of the thoughts or words of others, their belief or non-belief, love or hate, acceptance or rejection of me, remains a consciousness of pure unconditional love.

It never wavers or changes. My attitudes are consistently those of pure LOVE, CARE and COMPASSION, which I experience as a deep longing to uplift, heal and prosper. Therefore it is perfectly possible for some people, if they are sensitive enough to the vibratory frequencies of consciousness, to become aware of my presence or of love or of an extra life force when they are in a state of conscious longing, seeking, praying. to know myself better or to evolve spiritually.

As I speak of the lower frequencies of consciousness that cause problems on earth, you will be aware of my complete compassionate acceptance of them, for they are nothing more than a manifestation of the suffering and painful struggles of people as they seek to find their way. towards the LIGHT of your SOURCE of BEING. I come to the people, not to condemn but to uplift and strengthen them. I radiate my CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS towards you to receive and hold your name and spiritual form in my mind when you request my help and as it is receptive and free from the magnetic impulses of adhesion-rejection, a little of the DIVINE NATURE of the BEING is absorbed by the current vibratory frequencies of your consciousness which are then experienced as a strong sensation of elevation.

Therefore, it should be clear to you that as you release your earthly consciousness from its emotional bondage by mentally and emotionally rejecting emotional thought patterns that you perceive to be outside the harmony of Divine Love, you will become increasingly aware of an inspiration. higher level that invades your mind and even your solar plexus, providing you with guidance in times of need when you find yourself unable to perceive the best measures to take or able to purify yourself of your egocentric emotional thinking when reacting to a difficult situation. With my help, you can live in two dimensions - that of the physical world in which your body resides that brings you your experiences and that of the highest point of CHRIST

CONSCIOUSNESS that will allow you to transcend egocentric thinking and radiate thoughts into your situations from that state of being that I call the KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

I am not alone in this work. There are countless transcendent, spiritual, beautiful, lovingly intelligent souls of the highest elevation who possess entry into the dimension of CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS working with me to help people. Although we are in the dimension of CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS, we are all individual. We are not replicas of each other. We all express CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS in various glorious ways. The emphasis of our activities is placed on different facets of creativity.

We have powerful imaginations and can create and bring into visible individual form within our own dimension, those things that are far beyond your current understanding. You will hear that all over the world people are receiving inspiration and are aware of the presence of CHRIST. My inspiration, which radiates to the world at this moment, is received by different natures and different minds. Due to their previous mental conditioning, inspiration will direct each person on a different path. The messages that I can introduce into your consciousness will have different faces. In some cases the messages will be extremely distorted by recipients who are psychically receptive, but who possess an orthodox mind that clings to the beaten religious paths of yesteryear. Any message will be interpreted according to the beliefs that are in control. Any message received that might contradict accepted beliefs will be quickly expelled from the mind and its authorship will be attributed to Satan. For this reason, it has been possible to reach only the mind that is open and that craves the truth, rather than traditional teaching. You can be sure however that my message will always awaken people to the urgent need to move away from the restrictive and erroneous principles of all dogma and institutionalized religion. The message will open channels of consciousness directed towards the growth of spiritual knowledge. He will be leading people to ever higher dimensions of heavenly thinking in contrast to materialistic and earthly concepts. It will impart a more vivid appreciation of the true nature of your SOURCE OF BEING and the universe in which you currently live.

I prophesied, when I was on earth, that the time would come when I would return like the passage of luminous rays through the sky from east to west. This was a graphic description of the way I am currently acting. Perhaps, after the previous paragraph, you will accept that the lightning has struck everyone in such a way as to reach those who are eagerly awaiting my return with enthusiasm. The intention of my truth is to uplift and illuminate the minds of those who are seeking to awaken people to the many causes of misery and the future destruction of the planet. Countless old souls are selflessly acting in hundreds of diverse ways to alleviate the suffering of people in need, dedicating all their energy, time and earthly position to promoting the love of nature, of animals and their well-being and protection. and for the future health of the planet itself. Although these precious souls may not be aware of it, none of these concerns arose from earthly human thought that is directed exclusively towards selfish needs but from the dimension of CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS where all living things are seen as an expression of bar love. intelligence of the SOURCE OF ALL BEING.

In this LETTER I want to explain clearly that I have come through the channel of these words to help receptive people from all strata of society: from the peon to the general; from the office worker to the president, to work entirely from the point of view of LOVE.

There are materialistic spiritual/scientific reasons why it is absolutely imperative that people dedicate all their mental and emotional energies to ensuring that their actions and reactions are perfectly aligned and in harmony with DIVINE LOVE-CONSCIOUSNESS.

To remain within the state of consciousness that exists throughout the world at this moment, is to remain in a constant downward fall towards countless illnesses, misfortunes, disorders and the deepest suffering. Men and women can live in two dimensions of existence in your world, either exclusively from the level of ego impulses, which are the controlling forces behind and within all the daily phenomena that comprise daily human experience, or live emotionally serene within the Divine Consciousness, while their bodies continue to live on the earthly plane.

The fruits of egocentric consciousness are discord, disturbances, climatic disorders and abnormalities, wars, addictions of all kinds, poverty, diseases, murders, thefts, lies, deceptions, slander, gossip, low thoughts, depressing envious thoughts, angry thoughts, bad mood, judgments, criticism, sarcasm, rejecting others, etc.

These frequencies of consciousness are always bringing "mirror-like reflections" of the circumstances and feeling reactions from which they were born and are continually subject to the ups and downs of fulfillment, hopes and disappointments, oscillating between happiness and sadness. Those who through prayer, meditation and discipline and determination manage to purify their ego consciousness and elevate it, defining and harboring increasingly sincere loving thoughts towards other individuals and towards the world in general, gradually ascend in consciousness to the frequencies vibrations of the KINGDOM OF DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS, THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN where they live comfortably and at ease in harmony with THE UNIVERSAL LAWS OF EXISTENCE. Such people find that, whatever the problems and turmoils in the world around them, they are fed, healed, protected, cared for and kept in perfect peace of mind, provided that they stay within the spiritual vibrational frequencies when it's allowed.

Going down to selfish disputes and any negative human condition involving any attribute of ego, peace abruptly disappears and you find yourself trapped in the vibrational frequencies of consciousness that feed on frequencies of consciousness similar to those of other people in your environment.

They are like a fly caught in a spider's web and the ensuing battle to untangle thoughts from the lower frequencies of consciousness vibrations can be exhausting and painful.

At such times meditation and constant prayer, a supplication for help, strength and guidance to achieve the right emotional attitudes, are the only means by which the spiritual walker can again find his way back out of the trap of the lower energy fields to a state of harmony with the vibratory frequencies of celestial consciousness.

You may believe that the above is too difficult to understand and is not necessary in your quest for spiritual elevation. On the contrary, this understanding of the nature of your consciousness is very important. If you find yourself descending into low vibrational frequencies of consciousness, and if you are experiencing conflict between what you feel right now and what you know you should feel or would like to feel, you will experience greater control if you understand that you are suffering because you allowed your vibrational frequencies to fall. of normal spiritual consciousness. Determine the reason and bring to DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS for a solution to the inner conflict. Over time, in response to your prayer you will suddenly be given guidance toward the right attitude, and affirmations to clarify the problem.

What's more, as you raise your level of frequencies of consciousness you will find that you are inwardly strengthened in spirit and life force. The opposite occurs when you become trapped in lower vibrations of consciousness, either through a personal descent into lower frequencies of thought or from being emotionally drawn to them through communication with a negative or self-centered personality. When this occurs, you will experience a loss of energy. This loss of energy results in a depletion of physical energy in the cells of your body.

Therefore, when deliberately embarking on the spiritual journey you must visualize yourself as a traveler getting on a train to a destination of your choice. If when traveling you jump out of the window when you glimpse green valleys or exciting cities that offer pleasures of some kind and you wander along roads and paths that take you very far from the journey you had undertaken, you will find it difficult to return to that original path. First, you will have to undergo a purification of the lower energies of consciousness that you absorbed during your escapades to other areas of interest. This may take a long time and you may have to go through other painful experiences to enable you to go through the necessary purification of your consciousness again. Everything you do in life, you are either advancing spiritually, or you are moving into areas of consciousness that are detrimental to your long-term quest and journey toward higher levels of spiritual consciousness. You never escape from the processes of consciousness, nor from the inexorable function of the LAWS OF EXISTENCE. You can't put your life on hold while you sneak off to make a point that you think won't matter because no one will know. Anything you do is an action in conscience and whatever it is, whether it promotes your well-being or is contrary to your highest good, it will have its repercussions of a similar nature. Everything in your life is related to some other activity in consciousness. Nothing is isolated from everything else. People believe that what they do today is in a compartment. It is believed that today becomes yesterday and has passed, that it will have no relation to their today and, unfortunately for them, they will see it emerging in their experience as harvest time in six months, a year or even ten years from now. , when the energies of consciousness have attracted what was necessary to give rise to its visible manifestation. Then people ask themselves, why has this happened to me? Why to me?

You must understand that when you embark on a spiritual journey, you have set foot on a path that will raise your spiritual vibrations to higher levels. Laziness and inconstancy will lead you to a condition of oscillation between different levels of vibratory frequencies. These moments of incoherence are filled with emotional pain. As you oscillate, the original impetus of spiritual energy that previously elevated your spiritual vision disappears and you eventually complain of difficulty returning to prayer and meditation. It is difficult to make the contact that you could make with DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS if before you went on some pleasant walk that has led to the fall of your frequencies of consciousness. In this way, by giving in to overwhelming impulses, you make life difficult for yourself and walk on a rockier path.

At the same time, the impulses that are within your consciousness indicate that certain areas of your human consciousness need to be perfected. Impulses become the necessary means to teach you some important lesson. In fact, no one can take the narrow path that leads to the Kingdom of Heaven and remain there without divergence or deviation until he has fully experienced it. By the fruits of his hidden impulses experienced fully as all he has to offer people, he eventually comes to the clear understanding that they were false seductions, that they were not worth the pain and tremendous effort involved, to get back on track. spiritual again. Only when deep-seated impulses have been indulged and the results recorded in consciousness, can a mentally and emotionally deliberate choice be made to live life at a higher spiritual level. When this final decision is made decisively and positively the previous impulses are then eradicated from consciousness.

But I have to tell you that when you make the decision to live your life on a higher spiritual level, you have not necessarily reached the end of your problems. Ignorant of what is real and false in the highest spirituality, perhaps you find yourself drawn towards diverse cults that will take you into an endless desert.

I THE CHRIST have come through the channel of these LETTERS, to teach you how to choose the highest goals of your human existence and your true final destination in your journey on the earthly train.

In your spiritual searches, you are like a person who is presented with many colorful travel brochures depicting the pleasures and luxuries of various exotic tourist places, where you can relax and renew your strength. One spiritual teacher tempts you to take a journey that directs you to a specific goal to solve some mental/emotional problem, while another teacher offers you another goal and another path to follow. Each of these spiritual teachers is offering relief from some type of human pain or suffering, which they themselves have experienced in the past and have overcome. Each has ultimately found relief in their own unique way. Without a doubt, everyone has a valuable message of some kind or another, to share with people who are bewildered by the problems of living and who do not know where to turn for help and comfort in their difficult existence. But I have come to you from the highest and most advantageous position of the highest spiritual universal existence, through the channel of a mind carefully purified and imbued with spiritual life and dedicated to the work of bringing this message to him who is ready to receive it.

I have come here to show you who you really are in the deepest recesses of your individuality and who and what you can become.

Just as important, I have come to teach you the means by which you can achieve the transition from human consciousness to the higher realms of spiritual consciousness.

When he was on earth he said:
I AM THE TRUTH
THE WAY AND LIFE

And so I was and AM.

In these letters I am giving you the Truth. I am teaching you the Way to achieve abundant Life.

Needing another agent as a “spiritual crutch” weakens the soul, therefore depending even on me must be recognized as a temporary measure. For this reason I am striving, through my channel, for you to be able to realize that your true support, pillar, SOURCE OF LIFE and BEING comes directly from the all powerful dimension of Universal Consciousness in balance.

I have come to You, you who are reading this LETTER, to help You find the most abundant LIFE and what I called, when I was on earth, the KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

What did this statement mean in human terms? What did he mean when he said More abundant life?

It is easier for me to describe the meaning to you in 2001 than to explain it clearly to people in the year 1, after Christ. But I know that many people whose inner spiritual perceptions have not yet been opened will find what I am about to say incredible.

Therefore, to help you understand, I must remind you and ask you to fully realize that you are not a body possessing consciousness, you are: DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS individualized into separate consciousness beings made visible on earth, through particles. electrical elements taken out and united into elements, to give you visible living form according to a physical pattern.

To understand the Truth of Existence and the origins of your physical being, you must strive daily to get rid of the limited earthly perceptions from which the body receives its “being” and which is conceived and developed entirely and solely according to the unalterable laws. physical/scientific. Instead of your old limited human beliefs, you must strive daily to develop a clear and strong understanding that your “personal reality” – your soul – comes directly from Total Reality the SOURCE of BEING.

Your physical body also takes Life from Total Reality, at the moment of conception, but is also moderated by the initial plane of “vibratory frequencies of consciousness” from which your body was conceived. It is restricted and encapsulated more and more strongly as the years go by, by the magnetic emotional “adhesion-rejection” impulses that control human consciousness. What I mean by this?.

What I am about to tell you has enormous implications for the future of humanity, that is, if those of you who are capable of it make the effort to understand it.

In fact, the way you look at these CARDS will determine the course of your future lives. They will mean the difference between staying stuck in your current parameter of vibrational frequencies of consciousness or gradually advancing to higher levels of consciousness and producing children who will benefit from the exercise of the knowledge that I am about to provide you.

When I was on earth I made this statement, and I often repeated it, but it was never understood. "What is born of the flesh is flesh and what is born of the spirit is spirit."

I meant that some people have a natural spiritual ability to return to the original frequency of spiritual-emotional consciousness in which they were conceived and years later, they can be reborn and take on mental-spiritual awareness at the same spiritual vibrational frequency of the conception, and then living, evolving and working from it.

The original frequency of spiritual emotional awareness at conception will become the basis of the child's spiritual path.

Those conceived solely of the lustful desires of the flesh find it difficult to perceive any truth beyond the evidence of their ears, eyes, touch and smell.

If you doubt the above, stop and reflect on the unalterable principle of existence. All CREATION is CONSCIOUSNESS made visible.

Every living thing only thinks and acts at the egocentric or spiritual level of consciousness in which it resides.

Before conception occurs, the sperm is imbued with the total consciousness of the male, the future father, and the egg is imbued with the total consciousness of the female, the future mother.

During intercourse, changes occur in the mental/emotional awareness of the man and the woman. They may feel that love and affection are accentuated and they make an effort to express their desire for greater closeness and harmony of spirit. This is a true spiritual/physical union, on the contrary as your desire for union becomes an increasingly stronger desire for self-satisfaction this becomes an egocentric activity reaping only egocentric reactions, however whatever the condition may be. From the consciousness of the two participants in the act of union, their consciousness of the desire to achieve climax strains and leads the physical organs to move in a rhythm that produces psychic/physical energy that gradually rises to the brain creating a stronger impulse. and higher vibrational energy until reaching a peak of almost delirium and pleasure that explodes in an explosion of momentary ecstasy and glorious satisfaction and then follows a release and a gradual descent into human consciousness, again.

At the same moment of delirium/pleasure the human consciousness rises to touch the Divine Life Force that ignites the sperm in the male and the egg in the female there may be no conception and both sperm and eggs return to normal physical consciousness.

When conception occurs the sperm penetrates the egg and they unite in the highest vibrations of divine life in a physical and spiritual fusion in that united consciousness they also ascend in their own moment of balance and joy to become one within the divine life same as in the human consciousness Father/Mother, at the same time.

This moment of "union of consciousness" takes place within the highest dimension of Divine Life Consciousness and is a moment of unimaginable joy and joy, as the two elements of male and female are once again united, together and fused in balance. , becoming one, to produce a child. This moment of union is a reconstruction of a person's return to ineffable glorious ecstasy, in the Divine Consciousness of Universal Balance.

When intercourse is moved by the pure love of heart between man and woman, the united human consciousness ascends during intercourse to increasingly higher levels of "vibrational frequencies of consciousness" until participating in the vibratory frequencies of Divine Intelligence. Loving Consciousness, such a child, conceived in such circumstances, is born of spirit.

Lovers know when they truly love each other and come to each other with tenderness and pure love, because such intercourse is a moment of union of mind, emotions and body, and it persists in their consciousness afterwards, making it difficult to separate from each other. They are aware of transcendent beauty, the renewal of emotional love, rather than satiation, and a harmony that permeates all aspects of their life. These men and women are united by Divine Consciousness.

Sadly your personal EGOCENTRIC CONSCIOUSNESS can eventually taint the love you felt for each other and gradually replace it to a large extent leaving you separated and alone, sad, emotionally and physically weakened, wondering why such a state of beautiful and exalted love could diminish and die.

These LETTERS could be the means by which they overcome the egocentric impulse and come to rediscover their old love, at an even higher and spiritual level. In this case the man and the woman will become much more wholesome than before. This may or may not bring you together in a new sexual attraction that transcends any other level depending on your state of consciousness if you had already transcended the desire for physical fusion.

The physical union carried out or any other emotion, is directed towards a condition "of flesh entering flesh" and is nothing more than receiving and giving often negative earthly vibrational frequencies, producing similar progeny from such union. Even if a child is not conceived, such intercourse is harmful to both, since there is an exchange and absorption of the energy of consciousness of each in the body of the other, which if negative, hostile or critical can be harmful to both. other. Remember that the energy of consciousness is composed of Father Intelligence and Mother Love electromagnetism.

The exchange of energy between couples is the same energy from which the emotional/magnetic and mental/electrical fields of the body are formed. Everything is consciousness, therefore when consciousness energies are exchanged and absorbed within the body fluids of emotional mental attitudes and thoughts, each affects the physical/emotional/mental condition of the partner. To be healthy and life-bearing, intercourse must be carried out only with truly heartfelt love, where the good of the beloved is more important than the good of the lover.

It should never be used to heal breaks and wounds.

Intercourse can be a joyful act performed after a difference of opinion or anger, when there has been sincere mutual forgiveness and a full restoration of renewed love, of one for the other, but never to hide the wounds and to effect a false meaning. of emotional receptivity, in the other partner. No doubt such intercourse will give you a temporary feeling of well-being and transitory goodwill since your energies of consciousness will have been raised to higher vibrational frequencies. But this is ONLY a TEMPORARY RELIEF, of YOUR PERSONAL CONSCIENCES.

When couples come together while still holding resentful, denigrating, critical thoughts about each other, these forms of negative consciousness are transmitted in the other's electromagnetic fields and create a feeling of inner discomfort of which the partner is not fully aware. However, the relationship is gradually being undermined without either partner being fully aware of what is happening. This is why physical attraction between a couple wanes and dies. The hidden critical and negative feelings and thoughts destroy her little by little, deeply affecting both of them, at every level of their being. As the vibrational frequencies fall, they will be absorbed by the feelings and thoughts that previously led them to arguments with others and consequently, the problems will be repeated day after day. When people use sex as a panacea this becomes a source of frustration and disillusionment sets in in their lives, leading to a lack of respect and love for each other.

Therefore it is essential that people realize that fights and disputes arise from their own hidden impulses of egocentric consciousness, which take control of their loving feelings, and that egocentric impulses must be healed previously, so that couples reach a new level of mutual understanding, consideration and consistent love for each other. What's more, the condition of each companion's consciousness ultimately affects their environment, their living conditions, and the success or lack thereof in their daily lives. It also affects children, and can create a family of mutual cooperation and healthy mental and emotional patterns or a dysfunctional family, where no member is in true sympathy or acceptance of the other.

You may think that successful family conditions or dysfunctional/conflictive families arise solely from their innate personalities and the way they develop their roles on a daily basis. It is true that family life is a product of each person's personality and actions, but I want you to consider the dysfunctional or conflictive family that breaks up, where coexistence and sexual cohabitation comes to an end. In which the parents separate and begin completely new lives because they have managed to disentangle themselves from the critical and unhealthy consciousness that they absorbed during the sexual act. If they are strong enough to do that, each one discovers a "new being"; Build a new environment and set out on the path to new success. However, those couples who truly love each other, who consider each other's needs together, giving and receiving in a balanced way, offering emotional support when needed, or guidance (not advice) when asked, will see that the family is united, therefore the absorption of the energies of dynamic consciousness of each one.

In light of the previous paragraphs, it can already be understood that before intercourse there should never be cause for complaint, hidden hostility, contempt or denigration. Such feelings must be fully resolved before having sex, even more so in a relationship where conversation and freedom of expression are accepted as the norm, each one must resist the act of sexual love until a strength has been built between both of them. sensitive love and that the consciousness of both is in its state of pure balance.

As far as rape is concerned, this is the most nefarious act against another, and will attract upon itself its own just consequence, at some future time. It comes from an especially perverted and distorted ego-consciousness. The vibrational frequencies of consciousness of such people are so low and heavy as to be personally destructive.

In times past, society was continually taught and preached. In Western countries, the Ten Commandments were rightly presented as the true foundations of a humanized and civilized culture, teaching self-control, being easily acceptable in all the religions of the world. Today, as ego-consciousness is strengthened due to the influence of the entertainment industry and the media, egocentric greed is what controls.

You must also understand and accept that the energies of consciousness are as real and active energies as are the energies of heat and sound. Just as sound waves penetrate certain substances, so the consciousness energies of one person infect like a virus the consciousness energies of another mind with their own brutal tendencies. These energies may not express themselves exactly like those of the rapist, but rest assured that the energies of consciousness transmitted do implant a new idea or feeling in an innocent person. Your scientists are not prepared to believe in telepathy, but telepathy is a fact of life, although the activity of a dull consciousness may be so self-oriented that it cannot recognize that new impulses have originated in the mind of another. other.

I will not say. more on this, except to warn those in high positions in the church, in law and in government, who are not fulfilling their responsibilities to the people in these critical times. In the end they will perceive the enormity of their lack of moral ethical compliance, as they assume their earthly duties. They will feel on their own lives, the traces of the lives of those who have been damaged and destroyed, due to their moral negligence. Each action has its similar repercussions.

Maybe now you will realize why the current sexual trend in the world is causing the most deplorable conditions all over the world.

So that you fully understand what I am talking about, I want you to strive to VISUALIZE AND UNDERSTAND, that the Nature of the Divine Consciousness of Universal Balance is a Power without limits, since balance-harmony arises from the mutual control between the universal impulses of:

The man and the woman; Intelligence and Love; the Will to experience and the Will to remain acquiescent; the desire to be active and the desire to hold back and maintain the 'status quo', in order to form bonds and stability.

These Primordial IMPULSES OF THE BEING, as I explained in LETTER 6, are the Reality that has given life, form, workmanship, being to all visible beings. This dimension is a state of beauty, joy, harmony, sublime ecstasy, reverence, intelligence, love. It is all that the earth can demonstrate, but on a scale far beyond your remote conception.

Try to put the meaning of the previous two paragraphs into your consciousness, understanding and making the meaning your own will change the entire perspective of your divine origins and existence itself. In these aforementioned paragraphs, I have described to you the nature and essence of LIFE that comes into action and is activated within the sperm and the egg, uniting to give shape to a child.

This is your truth, your reality, your soul and psyche, the deepest state of your being.

You are instinctively aware of this. The baby is the embodiment of joy. The joy that is expressed by developing awareness of your relationships and your environment arises from the deep wellspring of DIVINE LIFE that has formed you cell after cell, according to genetic instructions, to your current form.

What is the difference between the soul and the psyche? Now I am going to explain the difference, the same attitude that your earthly psychologists discuss, however, this is the truth. The soul is the “Divine Flame” – a metaphor used to describe the essence of Divine Life which is absorbed into the individual being at the moment of conception. The LIFE FORCE takes personal form and releases the energy of the “electric force of activity” and the magnetic impulses of “adhesion-rejection” to undertake the intrinsic work of building the body.

Therefore, you gain at the core of your being, your soul-Divine Reality, that is Divine Intelligence/Divine Love, which is the powerful Divine Impulse to create, grow, feed, nourish, heal, protect, satisfy all necessity within a system of perfect law and order.

This is the Reality that is your soul.

Therefore, when you have overcome the ego-impulses and invited the SOUL to maintain dominion over your thoughts and feelings, you will be pushed to express all the Divine Impulses described. You will be possessed by a desire to only promote the highest good of all living beings and the universe itself. You will have become a true messenger of Divine Consciousness, expressing all its qualities of Being.

Until that moment of the reunification of the soul with the Divine Consciousness, the psyche occupies the deepest recesses of your human consciousness and draws its knowledge from your soul. It is the hidden instinct that is within you that knows how to distinguish good from evil.

The ego is also formed at the moment of your conception. As the child develops, the ego begins to make itself felt. It is the foundation of your human “I”, which gives you individuality. It is the energy of your human consciousness. It makes you unique and different from everyone else.

In order to preserve your individuality, the ego must protect you from outside attack of any kind and must give you what you need to prosper, grow and be happy.

This is Divinely ordained and should not be treated with contempt. The ego constitutes an absolutely important and very necessary core of consciousness of creation, development and growth.

The ego is governed exclusively by the electric current of activity consciousness, the impulse of continuous movement that is present in all living beings, even in plants that turn and unfold their leaves to best seek the sun. This is a movement that is conceived in the electrical field of constant activity and in the emotional field of "adhesion-desire" in the consciousness of the plant that allows the plant to grow and enjoy the warmth of the sun. The ego in every living being is only the seat of earthly consciousness. It in no way resembles the Divine Reality that constitutes the soul. The ego impulse is the impulse that is directed exclusively at conceiving what it wants to make the entity happy and to protect it from attacks, to ensure its survival and trample on other entities or species to achieve its purposes. This belongs only to the earthly dimension. This ego force is active within all living beings, from the smallest amoeba to the most powerful king. You could call the Ego Drive the protector and dictator of the living Universe. It is at this point that most people in the world today become confused when contemplating the possibility of the existence of a "God." They analyze the activities of various species, driven by ego consciousness, one feeding on another for sustenance, and these people decide that this savagery must be the work of the Creator. How then can the creator be a God of Love?

This is one of the misunderstandings and beliefs that I would like to undo. It is my purpose that everyone realizes that:

The entire universe has at its basic core and foundation of all things, the Divine Life Force that inspires and breathes through all creation.

.It is the hidden but powerful Balance from which all things have taken the being and form of all things.

It is the "space" of scientists, in which the movement and adhesion of electrical particles takes place; it is both the always unknown and impenetrable "ground of existence", as well as the hidden Source of all substance. that is in all things in the universe.

.The ego is the tool of divine creativity to produce individuality from the UNITY OF YOUR OWN BEING.

What I am about to say will be much discussed by your scientists, however, I am about to refer to the souls of those earthly beings whose intellect is evolved enough to debate and decide on the best measures to take and even with a partial understanding-responding intuitively and intelligently to what is happening in the environment. These entities of all the most advanced species are the geniuses of their kind. Do not judge the inner development of any species, human or otherwise, by its outer physical body. All living things are individualized from the same Divine Life.

Some psyches are able, due to their increasingly spiritualized mental/emotional field, to peer into the egocentric consciousness and undertake kind, humanitarian acts that can only come from the impulses of the soul coming from the Divine Reality. Therefore, the greatest respect and consideration must be had for all living beings.

Where the species has evolved to the point of formulating clear ideas and thoughts and expressing them in sounds and words, and where the spiritual development of the psyche can penetrate the egocentric consciousness, the psyche begins to ask questions.

Is this all there is to life? What are our purposes in life?, etc. When this occurs, the soul is beginning to imprint on the psyche, with an urgent need to want to reach the Source of its Being, which it instinctively knows exists and is its true home and resting place. The soul's continuing, though hidden, longing to reunite with the Source of its Being can now be felt by the psyche.

If there are people who never reach this vital development in their lives, it is because the mental/emotional processes of their ego are so strongly oriented to the exercise of intelligence and reason, that when other people ask questions such as How did life begin? ? God exists? How was such a wonderful universe designed and created? The ego of the non-seeker and the disbeliever is aware only of its own omnipotence, and sets out to refute that there is any higher dimension from which the earth could take shape. He reasons against the voice of the soul transmitted by the psyche and with each argument he encloses himself more firmly within the perceptions of the visible and material world, which represent his only security.

Therefore, the soul becomes chained within the electrical/magnetic and mental/emotional bondage of the ego and the human mind becomes convinced that there is no soul and that the earthly dimension of existence and the physical life force are the only realities. .

If the mind of such people is determined to reject any inspiring whispers of the psyche/soul, the body suffers minor discomforts, relationships are strained and life in general is filled with stress, this may be followed by illness. This is because such people feed only on the limited energy resources obtained from the food they put in their mouths. This energy comes from a chemical process and not from the Source of all Life.

Even though you initially took your life from Divine Reality and that gave you being, you also draw your physical energy from food and the digestive processes that make the enzymes that break down the food into a usable form that feeds the physical cells in your body. your whole body and mind. This is bodily life.

Many people live and die drawing exclusively on the energy derived from their physical processes.

The kind and amount of energy that is drawn from physical processes is greatly affected by the emotional/magnetic/mental/electrical fields of the living entity.

These electric and magnetic fields that surround every living thing from an amoeba to an elephant and a human being, are the personal radiations of the Life Force that comes from the Soul in combination with the radiations of personal consciousness-knowledge, in continuous mental movement. electrical of the entity and its emotional/magnetic impulses of adhesion/rejection. These electromagnetic fields are deeply affected by all thoughts and feelings that pass through the entity's mind and emotions. In turn, the fields profoundly affect the physical processes of the body itself. They raise or lower the health of the body according to the state of personal consciousness, whether it is in harmony with the Life Force radiations of Intelligence/Divine Love in conflict with them due to the selfish impulses of the ego.

A sad entity "breaks down" (becomes depressed) and dies. A happy entity flourishes. This is a basic fact of existence. In the final analysis, each living entity feeds on its own inner state of contentment or frustration.

You can see the truth of this statement in a baby's physical and conscious development. A happy and content child flourishes, laughs easily, is full of joy. Contact with a loving mother enhances the well-being of the child. The loving and happy radiations of the mother towards the baby feed the radiations of consciousness of the little one and in turn infuse strength into the little body.

As the child develops his developing personality begins to color the radiations of his soul with a force of consciousness, bright or dark, that either strengthens the child's health or diminishes it. A person with a strong psychic sense of electromagnetic fields becoming faint when an individual or animal is being depleted in their energy field. Although at the moment, neither the individual nor the animal registers physical illness. It may take a day or more before the body is depleted and begins to manifest the energy of consciousness in some form of exhaustion or illness.

You have people on earth, who have developed machines to record this phenomenon, and in years to come this will be the recognized method of diagnosing and treating an approaching disease. What is more, as the technology of spiritual/scientific knowledge evolves, the exact emotional state that is responsible for physical exhaustion in the first place will be revealed under hypnosis and recorded electronically at vibrational frequencies on screens. This will be followed by an electronic investigation that will represent the vibrational frequencies of various parts of the body on similar screens. This process will involve color changes, since each pattern of consciousness first manifests in vibrational frequencies and color. By comparing the mental/emotional vibrational frequencies with the vibrational frequencies of the body parts, the depleted organ, along with the mental/emotional cause, will be identified.

Psychiatrists will no longer delve into past experiences probing, pigeonholing, affirming, the possible origins or causes of mental/emotional/physical disorders, and then providing human rationalizations with which to combat them.

The truth of the spiritual state of the inner man will be clearly revealed and will form the basis of the necessary spiritual instruction and the meditative and mental work that must be carried out so that he can regain health, vitality, new perspectives and goals. , and a deeper capacity for unconditional love.

Naturally, drugs will no longer be used to raise the radiations of the consciousness of the suffering being, since the exhaustion of the Divine Life - the energy of the soul - is responsible for the illness. He or she will be taught how to raise the vibrational frequencies of the affected area of the body systematically and deliberately and how to deal with the personal circumstances that cause psychological discomfort and depletion of soul energy. The patient will also be strongly assisted by the influx of Divine energy from the hands of those who are true channels of pure spiritual life. With revitalization procedures, new insights and control of egocentric impulses, the physical condition will quickly clear within a few days if not immediately.

However, by reading these LETTERS you can begin to effect your own primary healing in your self-treatment. These instructions must be, referring to the driving existence of Divine Reality, and the correct way to harmonize with IT and extract Divine Life in the healing process.

When you begin to extract the Life of Divine Reality through your spiritual quest, asking questions, meditating, reading and praying, you begin to open your psyche from its locked dream of earthly egocentric consciousness; you attract to your mind and emotions the nature of Divine Reality itself. Everything that passes through your mind and your emotions passes into the electromagnetic fields that surround you. This contributes to your strength as your electromagnetic fields are invigorated by the power you draw from Divine Reality. The power returns back to your physical body and each organ becomes increasingly healthier and any dysfunction gradually clears. It is vital that you remember these processes of the physical/electro-magnetic fields because the knowledge will inspire and encourage you for your daily meditation and attunement with the daily Divine Reality.

If your sincere search and meditation are directed towards the Truth of Being and not towards some earthly religious form or a superficial or spurious spirituality or any material object that you believe has "powers", you will find that gradually your own nature will change and you will begin to be aware of others and their needs like never before. You will become more empathetic, understanding, affectionate, compassionate and sweet-natured. In fact, the soul qualities of Divine Life will now begin to control your natural egocentric impulses for satisfaction and self-defense.

I want to warn you that you will now have entered a new and difficult time, a time of conflict between the egocentric impulse that has habitually insisted on satisfying its desires, perhaps at the cost of others, and the psyche-soul that is beginning to realize that Love is the law and the rights of others have to be balanced with the rights of oneself, the self.

As the psyche absorbs more and more of the soul, the Divine Reality in your consciousness, the old egocentric impulse will begin to loosen its grip and the daily inner conflict will become more intense.

The psyche-soul, which will now work through the mind and heart, will find that it is balancing the needs of others against the validity of its own needs and will feel overwhelmed and tired of the endless internal struggle of self-questioning and of self-judging. When the psyche reaches this point of perception, it indicates that the pull of human consciousness is diminishing to such an extent that the soul is approaching and reunifying with Divine Reality. The soul recognizes through the psyche that it loves DIVINE LOVE, which is the Divine Reality, more than it loves anything earthly and that it longs to be fully united with its SOURCE of BEING.

Finally the psyche surrenders the impulses of the ego-centric consciousness to the Divine Reality and prays that it is capable of surrendering the "ego" through the death of the self. This occurs when people are truly reaching the peak of their spiritual life and usually need a spiritual teacher to guide them through it.

This death of the self should never be undertaken as a means to achieve a greater inner spiritual mission. It would be extremely dangerous and it would not be possible to achieve a greater spiritual or earthly life. It would be enormously destructive to the psyche and ego, before its due time. It would obstruct the entire process of development of the soul, psyche, ego and physicality.

Such a thought should not occur to anyone in order to be more advanced in spiritual perception and truth. Such an act of "willpower" would be self-destructive since it is born entirely from the egocentric drive to become spiritually more important.

When this experience of ego mastery happens at the right time, in the right way, the soul through the psyche is largely free to be in direct contact with the Divine Reality, since the continuous movement of the egocentric consciousness has been arrested. The pull of the earth is no longer paramount. Egocentric ambition weakens. The desire for personal possessions dissolves. Peace reigns in the mind. The soul that now speaks clearly through the psyche, longs to uplift, nourish, contribute to the growth of other souls, educate, uplift and nurture with understanding and tenderness, without any desire for reward or self-aggrandizement.

As the soul is drawn more and more into contact and attunement with the Divine Reality, its only earthly goal will be to treat its neighbors and other people with the same kind of concern and consideration that it needs for itself to flourish and thrive. be happy Giving is as easy as breathing and in the end it becomes a privilege to work for and with others to promote their highest good. This is Divine Love in action.

However, there is no sentimentality in Divine Reality.

The intention of individualization was to allow Divine Reality itself to experience its own Nature of creativity, joy and personal fulfillment.

Therefore, when I was on earth, I clearly drew the line between giving and receiving when I said, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." This statement was a loving warning of how you sow so you will reap. It was also a guide for behavior. If you do unto others as you would have them do unto yourself, then you can be sure that you are acting solely from the point of view of love. If others do not like what you would like to be done towards you, then you live by trial and error and you have taken a positive step forward to fulfill an act of true love and if it is rejected you have earned the opportunity to find out what It would be much more appreciated in the future. In this way we grow in the act of loving.

I also said: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." This means that you must have the same concern for the comfort of your fellow human beings as you do for yourself. It means that what you wish for others, you would be happy for them to wish for you in the same way. It means that you should have thoughts for others that would make you happy and that they would think about you. It means that your entire consciousness must be directed toward commitment to caring for others and concern for others, whatever they do, that may cause harm to you. All human beings are living in a jungle of desires, goals, frailties, disappointments, anger and human frustrations. From this war-ravaged consciousness come many weak and ill-judged responses and actions.

Therefore contemplate the fragility, forgive the unkindness and let it return to the nothingness from which it came. The only TRUTH and REALITY of your life is the Divine Consciousness Intelligence/Love. Hold firm to this understanding at all times.

To find the Kingdom of Heaven in which the soul is in harmony with the Divine Reality, there must come a time in your development when you no longer want to be drawn towards the perceptions and earthly consciousness of human beings. the other. You long to withdraw completely and dedicate yourself to sharing your own contact with Divine Reality with others. Be careful not to force your spiritual path on others, regardless of whether or not they are on the spiritual path themselves.

At the same time, you must maintain your own serenity by not allowing others to take advantage of your kind nature. You must clearly draw the line of what is right or wrong and prevent the selfishness of others from usurping your privacy which would probably destroy your peace. To ensure this, there is no need for your ego-consciousness to take over again. Privacy can be safeguarded peacefully. You have been given the intelligence to achieve this necessary purpose, with the highest degree of LOVE. Remember that the spiritual edifice of vibrations of consciousness that have been built from your contact with Divine Reality and your daily way of thinking, feeling and living, must be sacred and you must be careful not to become trapped in it again. the lower vibrations of the thoughts and reactions of others.

At all times, your highest purpose on earth is to promote the highest spiritual and earthly GOOD of all other living entities - human or lesser - not by descending to the vibrational level of those in need, but by aiming very high and offering the wisdom that has taken you to your sanctuary - your Holy Sanctorum in the mind, emotions and conditions of life - if there is a willingness to listen and accept. Otherwise keep silent.

Sympathy and compassion must be objective. Empathy will drag you down and entangle you in the vibrations of spiritual consciousness at the human vibrational level. This will possibly create conflicts where you have sincerely only tried to uplift and heal. Avoid this, as it will drain your energies and defeat your spiritual purposes.

Pure LOVE is concerned only with spiritual elevation and progress, healing and reaching the "Kingdom of Heaven."

DIVINE LOVE is a warm, compassionate feeling, charged mainly with the desire to make the loved one capable: of growing, creating, being nourished and nurturing others, being healed and healing others; Be educated and educate others. Being protected and protecting others, having his needs met and having the needs of others met, all within a clear system of law and order.

This is DIVINE LOVE/LAW in action.

When your highest purpose has become Divine Purpose in Action, the ego, the core of your individuality, is now controlled by your soul. The ego impulse becomes the true defender and protector of your personal comfort, but now it works totally in harmony with the directives of your soul, which draws its nature from Divine Reality.

I repeat, there is no sentimentality in the Divine Reality, none of the boundaries that ensure law and order are removed to please the demands of the selfish without giving in or weakly surrendering to the obstinacy of others.

At all times it must be kept in mind that ALL PEOPLE must respect each other. The rights of others must be respected: to their privacy, their safety, their peace of mind and harmony. If differences arise they can be treated with mutual respect. The more spiritually evolved you are, the more you will respect the higher and lower strata as equal, not in the eyes of God as human beings like to say, but within your own spiritualized perceptions of the fundamental equality of the soul within. of every living being.

Respect and DIVINE LOVE go together. True LOVE is highly respectful of the loved one. When there is respect between two people, this often leads to the highest form of love.

If you have found this LETTER difficult to accept, remember that the human mind is limited in its understanding of dimensions beyond the earthly plane. Do not allow ego reasoning to hold you back on your soul's journey. In my next LETTER I will develop the theme of Divine Love and go into detail about ego self-love showing you exactly how magnetic emotions are currently controlling your thoughts, feelings and lives. Outline the steps by which they can be overcome and ultimately dissolved from your consciousness.

My purpose is to direct you along the path of self-discovery and spiritual progress so that you can immediately enter the LIGHT, not only when you move into the next dimension of existence, but also while you are on earth.

You now live within a dark existence laden with shadows instead of living consciously within Divine Consciousness. Going into it and allowing it to permeate and brighten your thinking and the experiences of your life.

You have to know that my CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS is always with you and that you can have immediate access to me when you call me. Let this be a comfort to you but not a support. I am nothing more than the door to your own enlightenment and your own ascent to CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS.
