Superior Energy of Love and Light in 2022 I Archangel Michael and the Angelica Elohim family

Welcome to 2000 22:30 Beloved. In the welcome 2022 the Year of Love, the simple joy and the opening of the doors of paradise, we ask you to let this be a year of love and opening of the doors of paradise so they make it possible during this period to be successful and prosperity to Of course because time and space mostly are illusions of perception, you will be living between two timelines and between two realities. The old energy exists at the lower levels of the consciousness of its line of linear timeline, and the alternative reality exists in the spiral of the timeline of the higher consciousness of the highest frequencies. Each of these timelines, although there are the same space produce a different spatial reality. Then depending on your perceptions and the frequencies of the soul you will find yourself in a chaotic reality and full of fear or in a peaceful and loving reality. If you are a teacher of your energy, often and as needed you will be asked to move between them. In this year of 2022 you can choose where you want to be. You can configure your frequency dial on the timeline of the new land. If you ask yourself how you can do this, you can simply make it through your choice to establish your intention. Choose to live in a reality of love, kindness and compassion, so you are owner of your own energies and do not feel fired by your shadows that will make you fall out of the upper frequency of love. So simply choose again so you can align you with these energy The avatars of Great Master Yeshua-Jesus and Mary have shown the way. Concentrate on love from your heart when treating others so that they allow them to treat you in the same way. Open the book of love and start living on these pages. Maria will teach you to be present in your life and concentrate on what you have ahead without fear or anxiety. She will love you to flow with the creative currents of life. On how you should trust and when you surrender so you can live with joy and abundance. The joys of superior consciousness are simple. There is a deep bond with nature and with the land that gives you a sense of security and well-being. There is a sense of connection and communication with your superior being and with your angelic and galactic families that allows you to know that you are not alone. There is a sense of sacred space and community with those of your tribe on Earth as you find a new sense of family and community. Beloved, on 2/2000/2 of February, they will travel through a very special awareness portal called the Aquarius Gate. This year, at 2/2 / 2022 we have called the doors of paradise. At this time it will be when they will join in a sacred initiation that will activate the manifestation in the timeline of the new land. You will see and perceive how the sky is manifested in the timeline of the new land. You will see how the sky manifests itself on earth in your own space and in your own timeline of the new land. Whatever chaos, this control will manifest itself in the lowest frequency timeline. In the timeline of the new land there will be freedom of love. As teachers of energy and love they are required to maintain their energy of love and create a bridge of light that allows others to find their way to the timeline of the new land. Not everyone will be willing and even interested in the alternative timeline, but those who are ready and in fact there will be many of them, they will need their help to cross the new land, which will allow them to raise frequencies and perceptions. In 2022 many of you will be called to expand your work and activate the new aspects of your Mission on Earth. They will carry their crown of light and will be the sovereign beings who want others towards their own sovereignty and light crowns. Beloved do not reconnect. Now is the time to stand up and to be full of power. Right now they need you on earth. This is what you came to do at this time. This is an exciting time that will allow you to enter this new creation. We wish you angelic and light blessings in 2022.

II Energy of the New Year of 2022.

Telosians

Dear brothers and sisters of the Earth. We are happy to see them again in this new year that is being presented and will offer them in their daily lives to different political, climatic and geological events of one country to another. We ask that this year, at least in the first six months you keep with the serenity of the depth and with confidence in life. Especially that very often go to meet your inner being, from your soul, so you can understand who you are and what is what your life asks you to go through. If you are not centered on yourself, you will not be able to face all these events, that is, if you do not feel sweetness, peace, and the serenity of the divinity you are inside. Inner peace will be very necessary to not live the fear and distrust constants of this or that. You can understand that the essential feelings for the balance of humanity are only respect, mutual aid and compassion. Of course not all humans will understand what we are telling them. Some will be said that all this are only beautiful words, product of imagination and other things more. Those who think this will be those who will not endeavor to understand their lives to be able to look at the face and afford to enjoy the joy of the best that will be offered to them. It will be essential that you let your material attachments go; And the attachment to your family's beings, which in this case does not mean deprotection or lack of support, but to allow them to be free so that they can live in their own way, even if they do not agree themselves. In this new year 2022 the boost of powerful energies will guide you towards a better understanding of yourself but you will achieve it only if you make the effort to meet your divine being, so you can have compassion and respect. With the new energies that the celestial is driving towards the planet and around the earth, to your heart and body will allow each human being to transform at the level of its DNA. We specify that this very important transformation of the celestial, in the future will boost them to be an associated human with the new land. The current human being can not live in the new land that is being presented to them, that is why it is important and necessary that they be transformed as they can adapt. The planet itself is transforming all its energies, which are amplifying so that they can become the land with a celestial future, that is why many of you will feel within themselves to vibrant changes you will have the impression that your body is being transformed, what is not All this transformation will also be accompanied by some inconvenience that you feel, that is, sometimes you will experience a great fatigue, reluctance, sensations of small depressions and some pain. All these symptoms are part of the transformation of your body, so you can join the life of the new land. Dear brothers and sisters of the earth, we ask that, in the months of coming, they remain calm and confident in everything that will happen if the events impact them and seem destructive, do not despair. In some places on earth there will be loss of lives, but this has been and is a pre-incarnation choice of all these many souls. Know that we are always close to you offering our continuing help through love and light we spill towards you and on Earth. Have confidence in life and, welcomes the sweetness and tenderness of your interior. We love you. We are the telehics

VIBRATION OF CONSCIOUSNESS AT THE COSMIC LEVEL DIVINE SUPERVISORS COUNCIL

We are the Divine Council of Supervisors, together with Queen of Light Sanat Kumara, and the Pleiadian Council of Light and in this Beloved and loved ones. At the cosmic level your consciousness is already vibrating faster, at the speed of light. This consciousness is the one that allows your form to breathe and exists through this earthly program of advance of consciousness for the return to the full cosmic union of being. In this one, while breathing consciously feels these vibrations you are receiving. As you continue this connection, through your heart you will be in the harmony of the present moment, you will feel and know the very real presence of your divine and eternal consciousness, you will update the chemical process of your ascension. The transmutation of your memories related to fear that are based on the fight or in life, have allowed your consciousness to expand to beyond anything imaginable which in turn has allowed them to wake up the upper aspects of your brain and connect This alchemical process has accelerated the acceptance of what has once been considered impossible to carry out. The changes in this universe are astronomical, the change of poles and the resulting changes are much greater than you can imagine. This vibratory activation, has now been introduced into your DNA that allows you and powerful awakening from your being as divine eternal consciousness. Through your heart it will unify at all levels and at a certain moment of your ascension it will allow you to achieve a complete transfiguration of physical form in what you are like a divine and cosmic being. This alchemical process of moving towards this conscious being, is faster than the speed of light. This process allows your way to vibrate more and more at the speed of light and is what you call your ascension. We are activating you so that your old way dies so you wake up in your new state of being. While the energies of this change continue to distribute the electromagnetic waves of their highest frequencies through this galaxy and the universe the result is the occurrence of Enter your heart. Enter your heart center. Enter love. Enter the expansion. Enter the climate of the Earth. Enter the center of the Galaxy enters the center of the universe. He enters the core where this universe began. We are here and now we welcome you and activate them all. Because this change is a frequency designed, we release together and intrinsically. We embody the frequencies of this change and activate them on their own let go on their transmutation; In his entrance to his heart we introduce you only in the now. We bless you with our love and we activate you through it. In this now, he feels nothing more than at these frequencies. We are the Divine Supervisor Council.

Power field of the new creation Council of the radiant light

Now the planetary field is different. They may also be feeling that their own field is different. This is also true because the planetary field and yours are in a unit. The Earth is opening at the frequencies of the broader energies that organize the new ways in this new beginning. The light inside is expanding as the immensity of your being emerges from within. As you allow it, it expands and becomes yourself. You allow this to happen every time you remember voluntarily and joyfully the truth of your being. By allowing you to flow with ease and grace, invite the unit. When you recognize and claim the truth of the unit at any time, you promote this evolutionary impulse. When you claim your belonging to this unit, you rise to a state of the highest possible being. When you open what you know as your source and allow you to flow to your expression that makes it possible to be who you really are, then the world becomes new. In this now, the light of your interior is organized in new ways and this is due to the use of the collective will. They have made decisions that in this now are fundamentally remodeling reality. You can imagine this as the elimination of a layer of history or the belief with which the basis of the separation of the illusion has been created. But the underlying truth is already present and is a matter of your being referred to at your disposal to resonate according to how you perceive yourself and others. The new templates of life beyond separation, are beginning to emerge within your own fields so gradually you are evolving, reorganizing, and changing. We know that many of you have opened your will to evolve consciously which we thank you. This is a great gift for the world, which will bring grace to this dynamic period of change, because as they are made and organized by the new ways, it also expresses in the knowledge of its own belonging to unity with a lifetime. Then it is that you will no longer fit the story and beliefs that arise from the ideas and thoughts of separation. When they no longer fit into your fundamental field, you will discover the expansion of joy that is a clear and true future path. You will never be the same again. You will never be afraid again. You will leave aside the focus on fear because it is like a human being you will have chosen to align you with life to experience and restore your unit with everything. As one becomes you, life moves towards greater meetings at the level of consciousness. This is allowing you to become a Christal being possessor of divine knowledge, which will make you arise the truth of your being and when this happens to you, you will discover that you feel like unity in a very different way. We know that this process can be difficult to imagine, but we can tell them that they will recognize them as it takes place. You may not notice it at the beginning, however you have already begun and you will know when you discover that you feel differently from the structures of your being. Your presence will be rooted into your power field as you archive the new and the unit template becomes you. If you consciously want, it begins to feel anchoring the experience of expanding you in your truth, because it will allow you to note and flow through the increase in confidence in opening to the fullness of your being and the world. Through these words we are mentioning them about how they can choose how to participate in this process, however each of you will be guided by your own inner knowledge. Within you there is intelligence and humanity is doing everything you can to awaken completely so you can recognize in your world a whole life and everything that is. This impulse is now being opened and flowing through your will, and this objective will be fulfilled. In this now, this is the evolutionary imperative and this legacy of the light of the unit for its species, has been adopted at the collective level by the soul of humanity. With this election, the novelty will be articulated to see in the world to restore the unit. Then they will claim the rearticulate to the divine flow of pure, clear, and genuine truth of life, of everything that is life. More than at any other time, in this now your presence can be a source of joy and clarity and your internal connections are the means by which everything you need will come from. Therefore, he often sees you inside, to drink from this deep internal current, so you will allow yourself inspired to express, even if you are very soft thoughts, what you imagine that will give you joy and pleasure. You will affirm you on the true and authentic road if you want to listen to the sincere tenderness of your heart's knowledge. In this time, your true self, of the eternal infinite light, wants to be fully in this here and now. It allows you to express yourself through your genuine me. The fullness of life itself knows how to do to navigate here and there, through everything there is on this path. About you to what you need to discover, letting go to all the unnecessary so you can make the new template reality on Earth the new creation, for the contemplation of a lifetime. In this instant Take a moment, even every time you can and set a connection with your interior. In this way you can honor the sacred of your own expression. It will allow you to feel your knowledge deeper about the changes that help you resonate with your true self. Your inner light knows simply what you feel at this time. Then listen to your body. Listen to your own inner sense. The planetary field can drive you and your own body is made with the essence of the life of this upward planet. Therefore remains attentive, since you can open the way towards the wide connection and orientation that is available within you, because despite the apparent outer chaos your light continues to grow within you and the new creation is also taking shape in your depths. Now you can feel inside your way towards the harmony of unity with life. This message that we bring them are not only words, they are an expression of the new fields that are bringing to the divine intention of the unit of creation to the way they exist. The sowing of new seeds are leading to the new growth of the new light currents, which are developing to the beyond all the fear and the illusion of the separation that has occurred before. The unit is everything. All life is one. Everything is alive and, despite all appearances, moves as one towards the new future of eternal and infinite light, which is known and feels, throughout all creation. These are the first days of the great new dawn recognitions you the glory of it keep them close to your heart so you enjoy the experience and promise to redo your world again. Participate next to us in the beauty of the light that is coming. We are offering you the most beautiful experience for the development of this new creation. He invokes this grace every time you remember and want. We love you very much and we wish you a great joy to know that we are like one with you and with everyone.
