

MARIA - Keep spreading my prayer ☺ Light workers

Are welcome My dear beloved brothers and sisters. Listen carefully and receive the following message with love. My heart beats wildly, how many sons and daughters have responded to my call! How many sons and daughters vibrate with love for the planet. I am extremely happy, and be sure, my children, that you will achieve it, that you will change this planet. Let's make a comparison: a small source starts dripping some water and seems so small, so inexpressive but there it is, spurting out of this splash of water so that a few birds drink and to wet the earth a little. Then he realizes that he is not so useless, that he can do something for the planet, for someone who is thirsty and passes; for the animals and feels grateful to be able to do something positive even if you are so small. In another place nearby, another small source thinks in the same way, but at first this small and inexpressive current flows through the earth and as a great wisdom of Gaia it meets the other current of that other source and becomes a greater current that begins to travel the roads, even making its passage noise, quencing the thirst of more animals and more human that pass. And in another place, maybe very far maybe, another flow of the same intensity It crosses its path and they become even more abundant and begin to form a flow. It is a great joy because it shows the balance of Gaia. Gaia's love, which unites these currents to form something much larger, and this little stream joins another stream that has formed somewhere and gets bigger, wider and deeper. And after a while they form a great river that at some point will cease to be a simple river and will become part of the great ocean, then I will bring this little story to the energy of the planet. See, each of you, like this little source that you thought was insignificant without much value, but that joining other sources grew and grew and reached the top, which was the ocean. And so your planet maintains its entire structure as a great network. So I bring this to each of you, it meets another forming a small group or a large group that then joins another group and the group continues to grow and grow. What is happening? You become immense fluid then at any time, my children, do not feel insignificant or feel weak or feel useless you are all part of the one who is Father / Mother / God. It is as if we lit small bulbs, but when they get together they form a slightly stronger bulb and when they join with other bulbs they form a much stronger light and begin to illuminate the planet. You are interconnected, nobody is isolated. Every ray of love, every ray of joy that emanates, is connected to another ray of love to another ray of joy and floods this great network of joy and love and the points of this network that are dark that are sad that do not want the light will be flooded by this wave of love and joy they will first refuse they will not do it because they do not want to lose their essence very well. Everyone makes their choice but many change, many love the feeling of what it is to light their hearts and start a new journey. Therefore never give up, never consider yourself insignificant and weak. Each one of you who emanates love, emanates a halo of energy much larger than yourself and when by chance such halo meets another halo of the same intensity becomes stronger and expands faster and you become powerful. Continue on this path of emanation of love, of peace, of light. As already said here, it is a great step towards unconditional love. They emanate true love. It is immense, and from each one of those who emanate it spreads very quickly, so send more and more unconditional love and they will change this planet. Learn not to judge. Learn not to take sides. No one is right. No one is wrong. There is nothing to judge, there is only love and light to emanate, so you will change this planet, so you will reach everyone. When I asked that our messages be transmitted on the planet, we know why. And rest assured that this is the story of many here, who suddenly arrived, listened, loved, stayed and their lives changed. We will touch many. What you are doing is not easy, but think of it as an act of love. It is a commitment of love, but let's be clear, nobody has a commitment to me, no, each one of you who has accepted my invitation, is doing it for himself, is doing it in his own way, is doing it as an act of love, as an act of expansion of his love. There is no commitment to me, I do not demand anything from anyone. The commitment is with you, the commitment is with you, with those who will be waiting for the message every day like you, so always think if there is a brother on the other side of the world who is waiting for this message and I am doing this for him, so that he can have access to everything I have already had. That is love and that is spreading love, so, once again I repeat, don't say you do it for me. It demands nothing. Each of you made his decision to help. Never forget that you are doing it for a brother and a sister who will read what you are translating and that in this way you are developing this network of knowledge and wisdom, so you can change the world, so you help other brothers. Do your part and we will do ours, which is to reach all who need to be touched. Know, my sons and daughters, that my heart is partying. That I am very happy that you have heard my request, but I keep repeating it with me there is no commitment The commitment is with you your brothers and sisters, for those who do the translations. Believe me it will go far because we will make it go far is our job, but we need you. So let each one of you do their part, but always do it thinking that there is someone waiting on the other side. Someone who wants to read this message, then the commitment is with them, not with me, not with us but with those brothers and sisters who are eager to read our teachings, then my dear sons and daughters, do it from the heart, do it with much love and I assure you that it will be a light task, a quiet task to do and more and more people will move forward but always taking into account that by agreeing to collaborate with this help with me but with those who expect what you give. Once again, I repeat, I am very happy and continue, my children, multiplying. My prayer goes far, you have no idea and very fast, very quickly you will see the results. Blessings., We send you a strong and tight hug to each of you. We are the workers of the Light
