Brothers and sisters.

Listen carefully and receive the following message with love. They tell me: Brothers of the earth, brothers of the stars. We say brothers of the stars, because it is the now, the time that is approaching. Today we want to tell you that you have had signs of great changes, signs in your sky and on earth, that you do not necessarily see. Signs at the "hidden" or esoteric level but you also see very external signs, at the level of your governments, and you will see more and more. This has happened since some years ago. Some years ago, even many years and we have said it many times, that at the end of time, their countries will become ungovernable. You go into time, so close already, that your countries will become and will be ungovernable. There will also be signs of immense transformations at the level of your consciousness. Now, many human beings are waking up. This awakening is linked to several events. There are elements that you do not suspect, and we have already talked to you a lot. They are, the extraordinary vibratory changes and also the emission of thoughts of your older brothers, especially of the wise men who are in "vessels" (ships), where they work by sending telepathic messages to the "children" of the earth. These messages are increasingly powerful. At first, the messages were very light or faint, so as not to wake the sleepers too abruptly, but now these messages are delivered much more powerfully. They are much more penetrating in the consciousness of human beings, apart from the signs in the sky, you will see the signs of the total collapse of your world and also of its resurrection. Because there will be collapse, but there will also be restoration. We can say resurrection, because this word means to resurrect something of yourselves and the important thing is to be able to resurrect yourself, so everything is accelerating and we would like to give you a lot, much hope and tell you, that the moment of connection between the brothers of the earth and his galactic brothers will begin to happen more and more. You will feel their presence more and more and some will begin to perceive them, first in dreams, because once again we should not rush the consciousness of human beings because they are fragile. Its fragility comes mainly from fears and emotions. Each time you will handle your low emotions more and eradicate the vibrations of fear. You are truly promised by a wonderful world and now we can say that many human beings who now live, including all light workers, grassroots workers who work for the light of which you are part, will see at least some, the outline of the New World and others will fully take over this new world. To be able to settle in it. You need to make a significant personal investment. Gifts will not be given without an investment on your part. At this time, many beings pushed by energies, by the constrictions of matter, by the constraints of relational, affective social life, etc. are advancing less quickly, that is, without realizing it slow down in their progress a bit, instead of running towards this immense transformation. They just walk. We want to say that now we should not delay. You don't necessarily have to run, but take long strides, big steps. It is no longer the time of "relatively" useless worries. Human beings who are open to future existence, to the new conscience, to this absolutely extraordinary life, those who have the conscience of wanting to go to this extraordinary life, must strive more than others and not be destabilized for anything. There will be unfortunately and in a relatively short time, great difficulties throughout the world because the rulers of the world influenced by totally evil beings are leading your civilization to the catastrophe, however we will say that this disaster is also a "gift." Nothing is free, in the sense that even what can be terrible today can be a wonderful gift tomorrow. We explain: we told you that the foundations of your current civilization are on quicksand that will now destroy it, because everything moves. The quicksand move more and more and the basis of their civilization, being on these quicksand, will collapse for several reasons. Human beings have forgotten who they are. They have forgotten where they belong. They have forgotten the laws absolutely indispensable for their survival such as respect, love, brotherhood and many others. New divine laws will be instilled in you during your dream or during meditative states of wakefulness and even in your daily life, without you noticing. New parameters will be installed in IT so that the new codes, of which we have already spoken, are installed in you. The old codes must be totally eradicated and annihilated. Basically what we would like to tell you is to maintain trust and faith, because the best is yet to come. The best is yet to come and you will have more and more the feeling of releasing a gigantic weight. You will have this feeling more and more and each one of you may experience it differently, that you really are heading towards another world, towards another civilization. We do everything possible, both his galactic brothers and the beings of light, so that the transition between the world of darkness and the world of light is made in the softest way possible and accessible to the human being and his fragility, however, despite all these changes and all these disorders, there is something that will be evident anyway in what we believe, which is a relatively short time for the great total mutation, not only humanity, but of everything that lives as well as your mother earth in this great cosmic cataclysm, this great galactic cataclysm. It is inevitable. So if they are ready, not only will they not find it difficult to live this great change, to live the state of ecstasy, to live the non-time, on the contrary you will prepare yourself in conscience to live it and at that moment there will be no difficulty or fear. What we announced a while ago is still relevant. You live the end of time, you live the definitive combat between the shadow and the light, you are in the terrible combat between the infernal powers and the angelic powers. It is an extraordinary moment for the evolution of consciousness. It is an extraordinary moment for evolution whatever, be it the evolution of matter and its profound transformation, be it the awakening of consciousness, or the great opening of the heart, approaching overtime. So what we ask you, especially during these last times, is that you avoid complaining about life. We know, however, that for many human beings life is very, very difficult, but everything can be lived in a totally different way depending on your thinking, your evolutionary will, your acceptance and trust. Beings who do not want to align with the new paradigms will suffer, but not necessarily in their body. They will have difficulty adapting to the level of the new conscience to acquire and also to the level of love, because they will be prisoners of themselves and the problems they cannot overcome. From the moment you are unable to overcome the problems of life, whether at the level of health, psychological, affective, work and so on, you stop in your evolution, and if in spite of everything you have to live the great quantum leap, you will live in a much more difficult way and probably for some you can still live with fear. Then get ready. It is quite obvious that we are obliged to repeat the same thing many times, because they listen to us, integrate and forget. When you integrate, put all our information in a small part of your conscience and forget about it, until some important event in your life, returns you to what you have integrated and learned. What we are asking you now, is that they accept that many times we talk about the same thing especially so that they understand better and integrate the energy of words, the energy of the association of words, the energy that emanates from who we are. Many times we have told you that what we tell you is simply to wake you up, because knowledge is within you, but you do not have access to it because you are still too corseted in your "space suit", too trapped in the material. Our mission is to wake up to yourselves, to take out the wisdom and love that dwell in you and to make your ego diminish more and more, to make room for the new being in which you will become a totally different human being from who you are now. We want to add this, if you get to know yourself better if you are not in the reactivity or in the lower valuation of others or of yourselves, you will have more and more the extraordinary ability to regenerate you. You will not need to enter regeneration beds, you will not need external tools. With totally different vibrations that will not only flood you but will overwhelm you, you will have the ability and the possibility of rectifying what is not yet completely aligned within you and also of healing what is a bit out of harmony and so on. You are important, you are so important, children of the earth, that you will have less and less the ability to seek treatment from abroad. You can clearly see, for the moment, that everything is exploiting either in the medical, educational or other fields. All this is wanted on both sides. The dark light wants to destroy the possibilities of care and good education, but on the other hand it is also wanted from the side of the forces of light, so that the human being learns to take care of his body. Not to overdo it in what will hurt him and if your body has a certain number of years to resume it and sculpt it again. Of course you may still have to go to hospitals to have surgery, or whatever. But there will come a time when you will have to do a restructuring and the medicine of tomorrow, it will no longer be that of today. There may be repairs of the physical body of course, however they will be holistic and much more in the love relationship between who cares and who is careful. It will be a connection between the healer and care, with much more love and fraternity. So it will be completely different. There will be nothing that dominates and destroys the good will and love of all these beings of love, of these caregivers who have the passion to help others. They will do it in a completely different way without pressure domination or improper constructions, everything will be done with love and sweetness. As for national education, its structure will also be totally different, because today children are deviated from their own value and the value of life. Children no longer know who they are, or where they are going. This is something scary. Everything will be put back in order and this new order of things will be launched in a very short time. Meanwhile everything will explode, so do not be afraid if national education is broken, if politics is broken, if everything related to medicine, hospitals etc is broken, it is because you have to rebuild something perfect. The human being can no longer continue like this if he does not really go towards a spiritual notion, towards the true reality of being. Then, if everything explodes around you, don't be afraid, because other structures will be put in place quite quickly. However, there will be a moment of hesitation, a time when beings can panic, when they will be a little lost, but at that time those who have a much more awake conscience can help those who are trapped in agitation and especially with fear.

The level of national education will be completely different. The instruction will be the one necessary for the development of children, of course, and in that instruction, values will also be given. HUMAN VALUES Spiritual values will also be given very important instruction at the level of nature at the environment level. Children will also receive instruction in relation to what they are, in relation to their body, in relation to respect. All this is happening, for the moment in the invisible, but all this will materialize in the visible in a relatively short time. Now, so pay close attention to the signs. If we tell you this, it is because thanks to the signs that are given to you, you can have a little more patience, a little more courage and less fatigue. If you do what many have to do, many of you will be able to pass the course, move towards the new world so long-awaited and promised, more than promised, since it will simply be that. It's what we wanted to tell you. We would also like to add that your galactic brothers will manifest and feel more and more. Those whose mission is to administer large countries will also be helped and increasingly in their wisdom and in their love for their people. Great social transformations will take place in certain large countries. It will start first with a country and then it will spread, because people will understand that their rescue from this chaos and this pothole will only go through another way of conceiving life.

Another way of living it and also another way of conceiving the relationship with the other. in total respect and in love. Some countries will restore true spirituality. If collective governments are created, there will also be spiritual leaders who will not have common measure with your obsolete and agonizing religions. Your policies and all current human structures, everything is at the end of the cycle. That is what we wanted to tell you. Now we leave you. May peace, joy and love flood in their lives permanently. We love you infinitely and tell you, see you soon.

You are blessed, today, tomorrow and forever. We send a very strong and tight hug to each of you.
We are the workers of the Light
