<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qN8MzreID7c>

My beloved children. At this moment of Great significance, I approach you with a heart overflowing with love and concern in the midst of the challenges ahead. I wish to share with you a crucial warning. Stay in your homes. Warn your loved ones and friends and take care of the animals that share this world with you. We are facing difficult times and a disturbing trial looming, a dense darkness threatens to envelop humanity, but I want to remind you that even in the darkest moments, there is LIGHT and HOPE.

This is a time of testing that will require your inner strength and unity as a human family. Before continuing, I invite you to share your comments in the city or town where you are accompanying us. This connection will strengthen us, reminding you that together we are stronger in these critical times.

It is essential that they remain at home, where they will find security, not only physically but also spiritually. Staying at home is not only an act of responsibility towards yourselves but also an act of love and solidarity with those around you.

Through prayer you can find refuge in GOD, and I ask you to pray with fervor in your hearts. May prayer be your anchor in this sea of uncertainty right now. My heart is filled with sorrow and compassion as I contemplate the natural misfortunes that plague our beloved planet. The forces of nature are unleashed with uncontrollable fury, reminding us of the fragility of human existence. In the face of its overwhelming power, my tears mix with the torrential rain that falls on flood-torn lands and my sighs echo in the winds that sweep away entire cities.

I see my children suffer, facing earthquakes that shake the earth beneath their feet; wildfires consuming once-lush forests, and merciless storms leaving devastation and pain in their wake. In these dark times, I urge you to seek solidarity and compassion. When the earth trembles and the oceans roar, humanity must unite in empathy and mutual aid. It is in the midst of adversity that the true greatness of human hearts is revealed and in their actions of love and support they will find the strength to overcome natural misfortunes. I can't help but cry when I see entire communities displaced, families separated, and nature itself hurt.

But remember, my children, that even in the darkest moments the LIGHT of hope and resilience shines in your hearts like the flower that blooms between the cracks of the rock. Your inner strength can overcome the most difficult tests. Pray for those who have lost so much and work together to rebuild what nature has taken. In the midst of adversity, find comfort in the faith, community and love that must always prevail. Before continuing, I want you to use this video as if it were your private confessional. May each of you feel that your words are heard and appreciated. Share your thoughts, concerns and above all your prayers. Pray for peace, healing, strength and unity. You know that I am always here for you, listening and watching over each of my children. The strength of faith and family unity will be your defenses against the coming storms. Every home should become a sanctuary of love, faith and hope. May each one find comfort and peace in the arms of GOD, and together we overcome this challenge emerging stronger and more united.

Although I have never shared a message about a mysterious plague, world conflicts, earthquakes and storms, in the midst of these threats I urge you to prepare yourself with powerful prayer.

May the peace of God be with you, my dear children, and may my maternal blessings accompany you every step of the way in faith and we will overcome these dark times and emerge stronger and united.

I observe with love and concern the uncertain times that surround the world.

In the year 2024 darkness looms over the Earth and my tears fall like heavenly dew at the challenges you face.

My beloved children, in the midst of the shadows that threaten to obscure the light of Hope, I urge you to remember the strength of faith and the importance of unity. Humanity faces trials that require the LIGHT of compassion, solidarity and mutual understanding.

Prayer, humility and faith will be your guides in these turbulent times. Do not forget that even in the deepest darkness, the light of faith can illuminate the path to redemption. As a MOTHER, I implore you to love one another, to extend your hands in aid to those who suffer, and to seek justice and peace. Darkness cannot prevail when the LIGHT of TRUTH and GOODNESS shines in every heart. Be messengers of love and bearers of hope in this world in need. Remember, my children, that faith in GOD and devotion to the values that JESUS CHRIST taught us are your greatest protection against the darkness that threatens. Pray fervently and trust that with DIVINE HELP you will be able to overcome any adversity. May the light of faith guide your steps and may the blessing of GOD ALMIGHTY descend upon you, remain strong in faith and together we will overcome the darkness. May it encircle the world, beloved brothers and sisters. As we watch ancient prophecies unfold, it is imperative that we remain steadfast in our faith by resisting temptations and doctrines that defy DIVINE LAW. We are facing dark times in which we will be challenged to remain in the safety of our homes. This unique dense darkness, for each of us, will demand our preparation and spiritual strength. The three days of darkness and the global blackout are approaching and we must be ready to face them. We cannot rely on concrete dates or vague visions, because the time to act is now. Nations will undergo a radical transformation in the blink of an eye and the world landscape will change drastically.

May Peace and Protection be with you my beloved children. As we prepare for the challenges ahead, don't let this BIG DAY catch you off guard. Activate the notification bell so that I can allow myself to continue transmitting my love and compassion. It is essential to heed the warnings and prepare for the great torment to come. We find ourselves at a crucial moment in history where darkness threatens to envelop the world.

This is not the time for denial or doubt, but to act decisively and firmly. It is crucial that we recognize the proximity of global change, the imminent transformation of the world as we know it. We must prepare ourselves spiritually and physically for the challenges that await us. Personal conversion and repentance must be our priorities, since each lost moment takes us further away from DIVINE GRACE. Seeking a deeper and more meaningful connection with GOD by confessing our sins and renewing our faith is extremely important. We must also prepare for the three days of darkness and the imminent global blackout. Let us ensure that our homes are equipped with what is necessary, trusting in DIVINE PROTECTION.

Scientists have warned us about the intensification of solar activity in 2024, which could cause a major communications blackout around the world, so it is advisable to stock up on candles and non-perishable foods. Let's write messages and prayers on paper. Let's learn basic survival techniques such as water purification. Emergency and first aid signage. Let's have flashlights, matches or lighters and remember to save spare batteries for flashlights and other devices.

May WISDOM AND DIVINE GUIDANCE be with us in these challenging times.

PRAYER

In this time of uncertainty and impending darkness,
Oh merciful and compassionate God!
We turn to you with humility and faith
We implore the intercession of our BELOVED LADY MOTHER OF LOVE AND COMFORT
Before the throne of his SON
SHE in her tenderness obtains strength for us and protection to bravely face the three days of darkness
trusting in YOUR DIVINE PROVIDENCE
May YOUR DIVINE LIGHT dispel the shadows of fear and may YOUR LOVE surround us, keeping us safe
We ask you HEAVENLY FATHER, to protect our homes and grant us the wisdom necessary to prepare in the face of the challenges that await us May the HOLY TRINITY guide our steps and may the VIRGIN MARY, mother of tenderness accompany us with your maternal intercession
so be it according to you WILL, LORD, OUR REFUGE AND OUR STRENGTH, today and always
Amen
