Beloved cosmic family, welcome to the Channel, we are one. I bring messages from the hierarchies of light. Greetings dear brothers. Listen to this message with discernment with your heart and with an open mind.

Beloved. You are a Star Seeker, who came to this planet in search of the most precious, not only for you individually, but for your entire Monad for the Creator's Plan, to take this experience to the infinite Cosmos. The Earth as a school of souls was designed to be one of the hardest schools, but also one of the most coveted among many that make up the ladder of Ascension and evolution. Here everyone is tested by the harshest tests that a sentient being can experience. In fact, the great obstacle that every soul must face here is the propagation of the tiny flame of light that it carries with it until the planet can be fully illuminated, since the earth has been developing within a level of almost total energetic and frequency darkness. . As a world of trial and atonement, the souls who requested learning also came with the task of bringing the light. They all knew the real difficulties they would face here and also the long time it would take until the end of the Great Cycle of Darkness. Since the formation of this planet, its geographical position within the Milky Way has been on its periphery, in the arm of Orion and this is also due to the low incidence of photonic light.

Maintaining a minimum of light here for eons was within the plans of these souls who landed here forever. You are one of those souls. Your mission is already great for that alone, not to mention all the other purposes that will bring you dividends for infinite time. You received the mission to anchor the light here, but you also had the freedom to choose from an infinite number of possibilities, which will now provide you with the conditions of Ascended Master status. Obviously such a scale is only conquered by souls who are ready for Ascension. As an incarnated soul, each one has the same opportunities although in different existences, however the curriculum is the same for everyone.

Free will is the master law that determines what each soul wishes to experience individually and collectively in each incarnation. But the great treasure to be extracted is undoubtedly the set of virtues that it will carry with it as the luggage of the soul, since it is immortal. Even if you disincarnate hundreds of times, everything remains imprinted in your etheric body and remains in your subconscious each time you reincarnate.

The soul is your own consciousness, so during successive reincarnations, even with the veil of oblivion you carry the unconscious impressions of past experiences and you also bring the corresponding tendencies. This means that if you could remember these past lives you would see that everything is a continuation. The intervals between one existence and another allow the soul to recover this memory, make a self-evaluation of its path and develop a plan for a new incarnation where it sets as goals the lessons it is missing and the correction of previously committed mistakes. Even forgetting them later, when you reincarnate there is a natural law of the worlds, which makes it possible for each element of this Plan to reach you at the exact moment and to the extent that you request before reincarnating.

To summarize all this a little, let's say that the great heritage to be built during successive incarnations is always the same, that is, each one seeks as a final objective to accumulate the set of virtues necessary for the ascension of the soul. It is these virtues conquered and imprinted in each soul, which build the necessary frequency to provide safe passage for crossing the dimensional bridge that will take the soul to the new earth, leaving once and for all the world of expiations and trials to ascend to a world of regeneration.

The virtues are heritage of the soul. Nothing and no one can withdraw or subtract such treasure because it is non-transferable. They will be the faithful of the scales in the weighing of the frequency when entering the portal of Ascension, which is why we must also remember one of the phrases of Christ Jesus during his stay among the incarnated: "Build up treasures in Heaven, because those that are build on the earth they will not belong to you." To obtain the heritage of virtues, the soul, while incarnated, undergoes countless tests and expiations and it is not easy for anyone. That is why the treasure, once conquered, is so valuable. So valuable that it will grant you the right to inhabit elevated worlds in addition to the title of Ascended Master.

In fact, possessing such treasures, the ascended soul will not give importance to such distinctions, since the virtues conquered already allow one to feel worthy without the vanity of the ego common on the old earth. Once this heritage is conquered, the soul has nothing left to do in a world of trial and atonement.

Many of you have already reached this evolutionary stage and in this current incarnation you will be able to realize the Ascension. All the virtues conquered also in past lives will manifest now. It is part of the revelations because not even you could know your true potential in advance. You are much more than you think you are. The arsenal of conquered virtues will come to light little by little and although at some point this may serve as a final test, it is enough for them to remain firm in their ethical and moral purposes, because we are in the final stretch of the great path and that means that mining has ended. Don't waste your treasure now. It took you a lot to get it. It is the baggage of your soul so no one can steal it, but any distraction brings the risk of forgetting it along the way. Take good care of your assets.

I am Vital Frosi and my mission is enlightenment. Beloved dear family of Light Thank you for listening to our messages and remember that the Fifth Dimension is a vibrational state and that the choice to vibrate in the New Earth is personal and involves an internal awakening, a process of raising one's own vibrational frequency. It is a journey of self-discovery and connection with the Divine.
Within each of us a transition towards a state of love, harmony and unity we wish blessings in your life.
Thank you. Thank you . Thank you
