

Prepare for the Big Change

Greetings

You have gone through many adjustments in recent times and do not think that We, of the Galactic Federation, are not observing or providing our help within our possibilities. We are closer than you can imagine and the signals we have been sending to all of you are proof of that. The signs, not only in your sky but also in your dreams and at your side, as friendly souls who wish to collaborate with your evolution, especially at this time when many are facing their latest soul challenges.

The campaign to discredit many of you Lightworkers continues by those who still operate in the darkness and this has greatly affected your emotional state and belief in yourself and your own potential. Without a doubt their souls have been prepared to face battles as delicate as those of recent times, especially in the last three months.

Do not be afraid and do not emphasize the disturbing feelings and thoughts as they will cease as soon as possible. Remember CHRIST, who when he was being tempted in the desert was challenged in his faith. Be inspired by Him and you will see how prepared you are. If it weren't like that, we wouldn't say it. You have asked for help from the Heavens, and that help is being sent. Before the end of this month (May, 2024*), you will notice an aura of peace and harmony and everything will return to its proper place.

Trust that the work you have chosen to do is enriching and that the help you receive to fulfill your pre-established destinies will not be lacking. These are challenging times. We already know that just as you fight on the surface of Mother Earth, We are also working to put an end to the actions of those who act in darkness within your Solar System.

Many portals have been closed in recent times and in retaliation, those who worship black magic have turned against our allies on the surface. They have prepared attacks against you. They know that they can no longer interfere with their free will, since time has ended. Where such possibilities existed due to the numerous luminous milestones you have now reached, you can make decisions with greater clarity and understanding.

This has cornered the dark forces in one place and they no longer know where to go. Keep your Light on and you won't be able to touch them. They may ask us why we have not yet descended, as we have announced? It is important to emphasize that for a long time our descents have occurred in stages and at this moment we are already in its low orbit and we have full control of the non-Confederate bases that previously existed and that were used as surface attack antennas. No soul on earth is without direct help from the Heavens, and we have been doing everything we can to help on this great journey of yours.

The times have arrived when more revelations about Us will be delivered. It cannot be denied that the vibration of the planet is different and the armor that many wore has dissolved thanks to the numerous efforts of so many of you who have remained faithful to your commitments. Karma is still present, but much lighter than before since you have achieved the blessings of Divine Graces and your karmic processes have been nullified by 35%, thanks to the Love that you have anchored. It is not surprising since Divine Grace has always promised infinite blessings and abundance, and as you return to the Light, you would obviously also have many of your transcendental debits automatically dimmed.

The SUPREME CREATOR is happy with the wave of Love that has grown in the hearts of many on earth, and as a generous consequence has sent more Angelic Groups that will enter its borders. Now you will see portals opening in your Heavens in various areas of the planet and know that these Angels are entering there, who bring compassion and come with divine breaths, alleviating the storms that try to destabilize your connections with the Divine.

You can now feel their presences bathing you with Truth, Love and Compassion, so that you can also do the same with those around you. Feel his presence now. Feel the presence of these Angels at this moment.

Without a doubt, it is also important to talk about the rumors of wars that still persist. The many suffering souls will also receive these blessings, for God's love knows no limits as they continue to persevere in their journeys on earth. The bonds between you and those people scattered around the world become stronger, as there is a tendency to align yourself with those who also desire peace, even if you have never met physically. Given this, the LIGHT coefficient will also increase considerably, and the marker portal 144 will reach its ecstasy.

When that master number reaches its peak and stays there for a moment it will be a crack that kills the reality challenges you are facing. You are on the verge of a great leap and you will perceive it in the dynamics of your days when you feel lighter and happier and when empathy for everything and everything becomes natural. As these events approach your souls feel and perceive it, just as you perceive that the rain is coming or that the sun is setting.

Many people who live on earth still feel helpless, and you, as spokespersons of Heaven, have the mission of comforting them with your immense love and virtues. You have been born at this time appropriately and are where you really need to be.

We know that immersion in density has hurt your hearts too much. But now you will receive much more Love and Help. As you return HOME, none of you are alone, although sometimes in your dark nights of the soul it may seem like you are. Now perceive Our presence at your side, giving all the Love we can and guaranteeing our unconditional support throughout your journeys on Earth, just as we send this Love to you.

Now we also feel and hear their often desperate calls. Keep in mind that no voice has ceased to be heard by Us at any time. You have never stopped receiving help. We know that it can often be frustrating when help does not come in the way you expected, or at the time you wanted, but as long as you continue to follow your paths you will see that it has taken effect at the most precise time possible.

Another point that we would like to emphasize with you is about the guilt that many of you carry over time, when you have made some mistakes. Dear ones, the mistakes were impulses so that you could get to where you are now. Allow the Blessing of forgiveness for yourselves, as you enter into a new timeline that is open at this moment. Yes, My dear ones, you will find a lot of support in yourselves when you realize that everything, absolutely everything that is around you is to propel you in your growth and this game is coming to an end because you have been quite successful.

The current times where chaos is shown in a sickening way on television may seem to expose the opposite of all the blessings and successes that we have emphasized about its evolution, but it is more than evident that those who still act in darkness do not wish them to achieve their Ascension, trying to keep them in low vibrations. Don't give them credit, darlings. There is more Light in the world than you can imagine. Much more.

Some, who have been following us for years in their linear time, sometimes question, why do we often repeat many of our words? and the answer is quite obvious: especially for empathetic hearts! There are many souls who awaken daily and what many of you already know, for them is something new and it is up to each of you to lovingly encourage this awakening by encouraging them to "climb the stairs."

Our messages are an impulse for these souls, so that later they can become their own compass based on their own Inner Guides. Dear ones, it may seem that we are sometimes distant, but we have never been and if we sometimes remain silent it is simply because we know that you will do much better than you can imagine and that our instructions will not be necessary, since you have given them. captured through his own telepathy channels.

Yes, we know who we are addressing now, my dears, we know. In the future our messages will be delivered more personally and channeling, like this one now, through Neva, will be rare, as the conversations will be directly with you face to face.

We rejoice at the proximity of this EVENT that has been long awaited for the last 26,000 years. This is another year in which you will be propelled towards healing your heartaches, when through balancing the base of your being, the first three chakras mentioned by ASTHAR at the beginning of the year. For you: you will be able to have firmness and strength to transform it: Apparently tireless, to heal it. Seemingly incurable, to elevate it. Apparently not lovable and loving him. Apparently not lovable. Their hearts will be healed and transformed forever. Don't doubt that. Don't forget that we have the technology to access your future and we truly affirm you have achieved it!

I Am SALUSA from SIRIO, as spokesperson for the Galactic Federation and, as I mentioned before, I reiterate Our support to all of you.

We, of the Galactic Federation, who, constituted by a multitude of Souls from all over the universe and beyond, are now in positive vibrations for the earth and we leave our Love and Blessings to everyone.

We reiterate that you call us whenever you need it and we will be present in some way, but remember that it may not be the way you want, but we will certainly be present and at the right time surgical help will arrive.

We are all one. Be in Peace. Be in the Light.

Thank you for listening to our messages.
