Beloved Cosmic Family. Welcome to the Channel WE ARE ONE. I bring messages from the Hierarchies of Light. Greetings dear brothers and sisters. Listen to this message with discernment, with an open heart and with an open mind. Message from Vital Frossi.

Beloved ones you are a star seeker who came to this planet in search of that which is most precious, not only for you individually but for your entire monad* and by the PLAN OF THE CREATOR to carry this experience into the infinite Cosmos. Earth, as a school of souls, was designed to be one of the hardest schools, but also one of the most coveted of the many that make up the ladder of Ascension and Evolution.

Here all are tested by the hardest trials a sentient being can experience. Indeed the great obstacle that every soul must face here is the propagation of the tiny flame of Light that it carries with it until the planet can be fully illumined, for the Earth has been developing within a level of near total energetic darkness and frequency as a world of testing and atonement. The souls who requested apprenticeships also came with the task of bringing the Light. All knew the real difficulties they would face here and also the long time that must be travelled until the end of the Great cycle of darkness.

Since the formation of this planet its geographical position within the Milky Way has been on its periphery, in the Orion Arm, and this is also the reason for the low incidence of Photonic Light. Maintaining a minimum of Light here for eons was within the plans of these souls who landed here forever. You are one of those souls. Your mission is already great for that alone, not to mention all the other purposes that will bring you dividends for infinite time. You received the mission to anchor the Light here, but you also had the freedom to choose from an infinite number of possibilities which will now provide you with the conditions of Ascended Master status. Obviously such a ladder is only conquered by souls who are ready for Ascension.

As an incarnated soul each has the same opportunities, albeit in different existences, yet the curriculum is the same for all. Free will is the master law that determines what each soul wishes to experience individually and collectively in each incarnation, but the great treasure to be mined is undoubtedly the bundle of virtues that it will carry with it as soul baggage, for it is immortal. Even disembodied hundreds of times. All remains in that, in your etheric body and remains in the subconscious each time you reincarnate. The soul is your own consciousness.

Then during successive reincarnations, even with the veil of forgetfulness, you carry the unconscious impressions of past experiences and also bring the corresponding tendencies, which means that if you could remember these past lives you would see that everything is a continuation. The intervals between one existence and another allow the soul to retrieve this memory, to make a self-assessment of its path and to work out a plan for a new incarnation wherein it sets as its goals the missing lessons and the correction of previously committed faults. Even forgetting later when you reincarnate, there is a natural law of the worlds that makes it possible for each el To summarise all this a little, let us say that the great heritage to be built during successive incarnations is always the same, that is to say, each one seeks as a final objective to accumulate the set of virtues necessary for the soul's ascension. It is these virtues conquered and imprinted in each soul that build the necessary frequency to provide a safeguard for the crossing of the dimensional bridge that will take the soul to the New Earth, leaving once and for all the world of atonements and trials, by ascending to a world of regeneration.

The virtues are the heritage of the soul. Nothing and no one can withdraw or subtract such a treasure because it is non-transferable. You will be the faithful ones on the scales, in the weighing of the frequency as you enter the portal of Ascension. Therefore, we must also remember one of the phrases of CHRIST JESUS, during His sojourn among the incarnate: 'Build treasures in Heaven, for those that are built on earth shall not belong to youement of this plan to come to you at the exact time and to the extent that you request before you reincarnate.

To summarise all this a little, let us say that the great heritage to be built during successive incarnations is always the same, that is to say, each one seeks as a final objective to accumulate the set of virtues necessary for the soul's ascension. It is these virtues conquered and imprinted in each soul that build the necessary frequency to provide a safeguard for the crossing of the dimensional bridge that will take the soul to the New Earth, leaving once and for all the world of atonements and trials, by ascending to a world of regeneration.

Therefore, we must also remember one of the phrases of CHRIST JESUS, during His sojourn among the incarnate: 'Build treasures in Heaven, for those that are built on earth shall not belong to you.

To obtain the heritage of the soul, while incarnated, undergoes endless trials and atonements, and it is not easy for anyone. That is why the treasure once conquered is so valuable, so valuable that it will grant you the right to inhabit higher worlds in addition to the title of ascended master. In fact, possessing such treasures, the Ascended Soul will attach no importance to such distinctions, for the virtues conquered already allow one to feel worthy without the vanity of the ego common on the old earth. Once that heritage is conquered, the soul has nothing left to do in a world of trial and atonement.

Many of you have already reached this evolutionary stage and in this present incarnation will be able to realise Ascension. All the virtues also conquered in past lives will now manifest. It is part of the revelations, for even you could not know your true potential beforehand.

You are much more than you think you are. The arsenal of conquered virtues will gradually come to light, and though at some point this may serve as a final test, it is enough that you hold fast to your ethical and moral purpose, for we are on the home stretch of the Great Path, and that means that the 'mining' is over. Do not waste your treasure now. It cost you much to get it. It is the baggage of your soul, so no one can take it away, but any distraction brings the risk of forgetting it on the way. Take good care of your heritage.

I am Vital Frosi and my mission is enlightenment.
